GREAT INDUCEMENTS OFFERED

FOR

Getting up Clubs.

Daily, Tri-Weekly and Weekly !

THE Democrat will continue to be a faithful advocate and supporter of the principles of the republican party. Its energies will be especially devoted to the west—to the advocacy of western interests and the assertion of western rights. The administration of Abraham Lincoln shall receive its cordial and unfaltering support. The great measures of a Pacific railroad on the central route; free lands for the landless; the improvement of river navigation; retrenchment and reform, in all the departments of the federal government, will be urged with that zeal and devotion which have won for the Democrat its present position. On all questions it will boldly espouse the right, and only seek its advancement through the public good.

ITS NEWS, LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS DEPARTMENTS,

shall be all that readers could desire. The Political, Agricultural and Manufacturing interests of the country shall receive due attention.

THE COMMERCIAL CHARACTER

of the Democrat is well established. This important interest is under the management of one thoroughly familiar with commercial affairs, and we pledge our honor that its figures shall always be the true index of trade here, while it furnishes daily more commercial news than any other paper in Missouri.

DAILY GAZETTE.

HEAR THE OTHER SIDE — SECRETARY CAMERON.—The Washington correspondent of the Chicago Journal—a paper that has not been sparing of sharp comments on the inefficiency, if not something worse, of the war department—writes:

"And here let me say a word about Secretary Cameron. Reports are as rife here as elsewhere, of his trickery in the management of government; and I had reluctantly come to the conclusion—so common and uncontradictory were the reports—that there must be some truth in them. But I have good authority for saying they are "baseless as the fabric of a vision." My authority is no less a person than Senator Wilson of Massachusetts. He is chairman of the military committee of congress, and his official position brings him into confidential intercourse with the secretary of war, and he is necessarily made acquainted with the war department. He entered upon his official duty as chairman of the military committee, with some of the prejudice against the secretary which exists in the public mind. He was therefore, inclined closely to scrutinize his conduct; and the result of Gen. Wilson's intercourse with, and the scrutiny of the war department, has led him to the conclusion that the charges made so flippantly and so confidently against Gen. Cameron, are without foundation; that he had not made one cent out of any contract with the department. I heard Gen. Wilson declare this in conversation; and not only did he say this, but he further emphatically declared that he believed these reports originated with those who wanted, but have been unable to sell the government, at enormous prices, vessels worthless for war service, or to "line their pockets" with fat contracts for the army. He added, further, that Gen. Cameron is conducting the war department with great energy and efficiency.

I have also unquestionable authority for saying that Secretary Chase, whose lynx-eyed keenness in scenting out everything which smacks of fraud in the conduct of the government is proverbial, concurs in Gen. Wilson's opinion of Secretary Cameron."

A VALUABLE REFORM.—Gen. Fremont is a practical, working man, all industry and energy. The St. Louis army correspondent of the Cincinnati Times takes notes of an improvement in the quartermaster's department under Fremont which is worthy of the attention of the war department everywhere. He don't like the thieves, and has no friend to reward but his gallant troops. Consequently all clothing, haversacks, tents, drawers, &c., are made by government establishments, which have suddenly sprung into existence, and are attached to the quartermaster's department. I visited two of these establishments recently, in which nearly one thousand females are employed. Preference is given to the wives and daughters of the volunteers, and no one tainted in the least with secession is employed. A sewing woman receives $3 a week, a woman and sewing machine $5 a week. They are paid weekly in gold. Hundreds of families have been saved from distress by this movement—many, perhaps, from starvation. The establishments have been doing enough in operation to permit a fair comparison between the present and the old system of furnishing the army. Although the employees are better paid than they would be by contractors, there is a clear saving to the government of forty per cent.

I commend this reform to the war department. It should be effected in every division of the army. It would save much suffering in our large cities, and thousands who are now growing wealthy by cheating the government in the manufacture of clothing, &c., would become invisible.

CURE FOR THE TOOTHACHE.—An exchange gives the following—"My dear friend," said H., "I can cure your toothache in ten minutes." "How—how?" I inquired; "do it in pity." "Instantly," said he. "Have you any alum?" "Yes." "Bring it, and some common salt." They were produced. My friend pulverized them, mixed them in equal quantities; then wet a small piece of cotton causing the powder to adhere, and placed it in my hollow tooth. "There," said he, "if that does not cure you I will forfeit my head. You may tell this to every one, and publish it everywhere. The remedy is infallible." It was as he predicted. On the introduction of the mixed alum and salt, I experienced a sensation of coldness, and with it—the alum and salt—I cured the torment of the toothache.

WAUKESHA SENATOR.—Joseph Bond, of Mukwonago, declines the democratic nomination for senator, in Waukesha county.—Mr. Bond's reasons we presume are, an unwillingness to recognize any partizan action in existing emergencies. The convention voted down almost unanimously a proposition introduced by Mr. Elmore repudiating partizanship. Mr. Bond is an excellent man and would well represent the county. Mr. Hodgson, represented to be a very fit man, is nominated by the republicans for the place.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

CAN'T STAND THE DISGRACE.—We learn that several of the resigned officers in this vicinity, unable to bear the scorn of their fellow citizens, who look upon them with disparagement on account of their pusillanimous course, express their determination to return to duty, and rather than not take a part in the effort now making to preserve their country intact, to shoulder their muskets and fight in the ranks. This is a praiseworthy resolution, and will meet with the cordial approbation of all true patriots.—Utica (N. Y.) Telegraph.

THE SECRET OF HIS SECESSION.—A gentleman in the city is well acquainted with Mr. Converse, the editor of the Christian Observer in Philadelphia, which was recently suppressed, and says he is an easy, good-natured old soul, and used to be a Methodist preacher, but has been editing some seven or eight years. The secret of his secession tendencies lies in the fact that he owns a plantation and several negroes down in Virginia, and he fears they may be confiscated by the south. His plantation outweighs his patriotism.

WHAT A NORTHERN REBEL THOUGHT.—In the last number of the Stark County Democrat, previous to its "cleaning out," the editor proclaimed the president's war measures unconstitutional, and said that states and individuals were not only not bound to obey their requirements, but that "resistance rather is the part of duty," and that the president ought to be impeached. The people of Stark county indicated their view of the matter by demolishing the traitor's office.

TESTIMONIAL.

To Whom it May Concern:

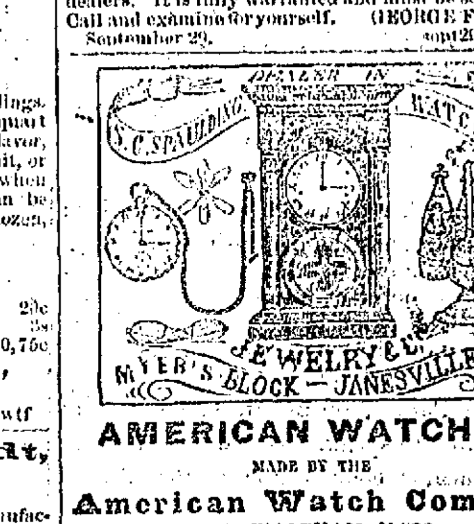

I AM now over 60 years of age. Three years since I became blind from Cataract in both eyes. Soon after I became blind an attempt to restore my sight by an operation was made in this city, which was unsuccessful. Hearing of the reputation of Dr. Folsom, as a skillful oculist, I was induced to consult him, though with very little hopes of relief. The doctor proposed an operation, to which I consented, which resulted in almost Perfect Restoration of Sight to one eye. He afterwards performed an operation on the other eye with success. I am now enjoying the inestimable blessing of good vision, and a much better general state of health than before. THOS. VAUGHN.

DAILY GAZETTE.

HEAR THE OTHER SIDE — SECRETARY CAMERON.—The Washington correspondent of the Chicago Journal—a paper that has not been sparing of sharp comments on the inefficiency, if not something worse, of the war department—writes:

"And here let me say a word about Secretary Cameron. Reports are as rife here as elsewhere, of his trickery in the management of government; and I had reluctantly come to the conclusion—so common and uncontradictory were the reports—that there must be some truth in them. But I have good authority for saying they are "baseless as the fabric of a vision." My authority is no less a person than Senator Wilson of Massachusetts. He is chairman of the military committee of congress, and his official position brings him into confidential intercourse with the secretary of war, and he is necessarily made acquainted with the war department. He entered upon his official duty as chairman of the military committee, with some of the prejudice against the secretary which exists in the public mind. He was therefore, inclined closely to scrutinize his conduct; and the result of Gen. Wilson's intercourse with, and the scrutiny of the war department, has led him to the conclusion that the charges made so flippantly and so confidently against Gen. Cameron, are without foundation; that he had not made one cent out of any contract with the department. I heard Gen. Wilson declare this in conversation; and not only did he say this, but he further emphatically declared that he believed these reports originated with those who wanted, but have been unable to sell the government, at enormous prices, vessels worthless for war service, or to "line their pockets" with fat contracts for the army. He added, farther, that Gen. Cameron is conducting the war department with great energy and efficiency.

I have also unquestionable authority for saying that Secretary Chase, whose lynx-eyed keenness in scenting out everything which smacks of fraud in the conduct of the government is proverbial, concurs in Gen. Wilson's opinion of Secretary Cameron."

A VALUABLE REFORM.—Gen. Fremont is a practical, working man, all industry and energy. The St. Louis army correspondent of the Cincinnati Times takes notes of an improvement in the quartermaster's department under Fremont which is worthy of the attention of the war department everywhere. He don't like the thieves, and has no friend to reward but his gallant troops. Consequently all clothing, haversacks, tents, drawers, &c., are made by government establishments, which have suddenly sprung into existence, and are attached to the quartermaster's department. I visited two of these establishments recently, in which nearly one thousand females are employed. Preference is given to the wives and daughters of the volunteers, and no one tainted in the least with secession is employed. A sewing woman receives $3 a week, a woman and sewing machine $5 a week. They are paid weekly in gold. Hundreds of families have been saved from distress by this movement—many, perhaps, from starvation. The establishments have been long enough in operation to permit a fair comparison between the present and the old system of furnishing the army. Although the employees are better paid than they would be by contractors, there is a clear saving to the government of forty per cent.

I commend this reform to the war department. It should be effected in every division of the army. It would save much suffering in our large cities, and thousands who are now growing wealthy by cheating the government in the manufacture of clothing, &c., would become invisible.

CURE FOR THE TOOTHACHE.—An exchange gives the following—"My dear friend," said H., "I can cure your toothache in ten minutes." "How—how?" I inquired; "do it in pity." "Instantly," said he. "Have you any alum?" "Yes." "Bring it, and some common salt." They were produced. My friend pulverized them, mixed them in equal quantities, then wet a small piece of cotton, causing the powder to adhere, and placed it in my hollow tooth. "There," said he, "If that does not cure you I will forfeit my head. You may tell this to every one, and publish it everywhere. The remedy is infallible." It was as he predicted. On the introduction of the mixed alum and salt, I experienced a sensation of coldness, and with it—the alum and salt—I cured the torment of the toothache.

WAUKESHA SENATOR.—Joseph Bond, of Mukwonago, declines the democratic nomination for senator, in Waukesha county.—Mr. Bond's reasons we presume are, an unwillingness to recognize any partizan action in existing emergencies. The convention voted down almost unanimously a proposition introduced by Mr. Emore repudiating partizanship. Mr. Bond is an excellent man and would well represent the county. Mr. Hodgson, represented to be a very fit man, is nominated by the republicans for the place.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

CAN'T STAND THE DISGRACE.—We learn that several of the resigned officers in this vicinity, unable to bear the scorn of their fellow citizens, who look upon them with disparagement on account of their pusillanimous course, express their determination to return to duty, and rather than not take a part in the effort now making to preserve their country intact, to shoulder their musket and fight in the ranks. This is a praiseworthy resolution, and will meet with the cordial approbation of all true patriots.—Utica (N. Y.) Telegraph.

THE SECRET OF HIS SECESSION.—A gentleman in the city is well acquainted with Mr. Converse, the editor of the Christian Observer in Philadelphia, which was recently suppressed, and says he is an easy, good-natured old soul, and used to be a Methodist preacher, but has been editing some seven or eight years. The secret of his secession tendencies lies in the fact that he owns a plantation and several negroes down in Virginia, and he fears they may be confiscated by the south. His plantation outweighs his patriotism.

WHAT A NORTHERN REBEL THOUGHT.—In the last number of the Stark County Democrat, previous to its "cleaning out," the editor proclaimed the president's war measures unconstitutional, and said that states and individuals were not only not bound to obey their requirements, but that "resistance rather is the part of duty," and that the president ought to be impeached. The people of Stark county indicated their view of the matter by demolishing the traitor's office.

TESTIMONIAL.

To Whom it May Concern:

I AM now over 60 years of age. Three years since I became blind from Cataract in both eyes. Soon after I became blind an attempt to restore my sight by an operation was made in this city, which was unsuccessful. Hearing of the reputation of Dr. Folsom, as a skillful oculist, I was induced to consult him, though with very little hopes of relief. The doctor proposed an operation, to which I consented, which resulted in almost Perfect Restoration of Sight to one eye. He afterwards performed an operation on the other eye with success. I am now enjoying the inestimable blessing of good vision, and a much better general state of health than before. THOS. VAUGHN.

Republican State Convention.

A Republican State Convention will be held at the Capitol, in the city of Madison, at 12 o'clock M., on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of September next, for the purpose of nominating candidates for state officers.

Each assembly district, under the new apportionment, will be entitled to two delegates in the convention.

The committee recommend that the primary meetings for the selection of delegates be held on or before the 14th day of September, and that the district committees issue early calls for such meetings, that the people may be thoroughly notified, and choose delegates who fairly reflect their wishes.

HORACE RUBLEE,
Chairman State Republican Central Com.

Madison, August 12, 1861.

The Right Course at Last.

Gen. Fremont has declared martial law throughout the state of Missouri. He also proclaims that every man found in arms against the government north of the line of military occupation, extending from Fort Leavenworth to Cape Girardeau, SHALL BE SHOT; that the property, real and personal, of all persons in the state of Missouri who shall have taken up arms against the United States, or who shall be directly proven to have taken part with their enemies in the field, is DECLARED CONFISCATED, and their SLAVES, if any they have, are declared FREE MEN.

The right course to put down the rebellion has at last been adopted. All honor to the MAN who has had the nerve and the will to do his whole duty. The country will sustain him, the west will pour out her men and money without stint. Hurrah for Fremont and the army of the west! Let us make ready, and when the first frost spreads over the fields of the south, let it witness an army of one hundred thousand men, fully prepared to march under the banner of the Pathfinder, down the great valley to the mouth of the Mississippi.—Then let the word be—ONWARD TO NEW ORLEANS.

The Way to do It.

The way in which the committee appointed at the war meeting last evening have gone to work indicates that they mean to do their duty in the most prompt and efficient manner, and we shall be disappointed if their labors do not result in the immediate raising of a regiment for the war in this county and Green. The meeting itself was animated with more spirit and determined zeal than any we have ever before attended even in the most hotly contested election times, and we should expect that the committee, which was judiciously chosen, would partake of the same animation. It is even so. Each member of the committee is a working man in the best sense of the term, and we hope their efforts will be most heartily seconded by the people throughout the counties in which they are to operate. The crisis certainly calls for earnestness, for activity, for patriotic devotion to our country's cause. The people feel the importance of this crisis and are determined to act accordingly.

The Right Spirit.

At the meeting last night the right spirit was manifested. If there was any fear on the part of any one that controverted subjects would be introduced, the proceedings of the first and this adjourned meeting have effectually dispelled them. The single and permanent object of sustaining the government was alone entertained, and the plan of operations reported by the committee met the approbation of all. It is to be hoped that a similar spirit will animate the people of the whole region in which the proposed regiment is to be raised, and the work necessary to raise it will be at once commenced and no effort remitted until the object is accomplished. The work is large, but it can be effected, and most unquestionably ought to be. Activity and unanimity is the duty of all.

NOT APPOINTED.—The Madison Journal says—The report, so prevalent here that we supposed there was no question about it, that Lieut. Col. Harris had been appointed colonel of the second regiment proves incorrect. On inquiry at the capitol, we find that Col. O'Connor's resignation had not yet been received there."

REBEL SYMPATHISERS WATCHED.—Already, through the activity of the Provost Marshall, General Porter's department, the lines of communication with the rebels from their agents here are almost entirely broken up. Intercepted correspondence shows how little they know of the real state of things in and about Washington, and how their camps are filled with conflicting rumors in place of the trustworthy intelligence they formerly had of our movements.—Women who have had so much to do with conveying surreptitious intelligence are narrowly watched—and I may add that there is not a family of rebel sympathisers in the city but is under the surveillance of the Government.

The Pope is rapidly failing in health.—The Milan Perseveranza has a letter from Rome, which says: "The Pope is ill. He has not only the chronic affection of the legs, which are swollen and covered with large sores, but he has a disease of the heart which may carry him off at any moment.—Dr. Carpi gives it as his opinion that he cannot live for three months."

Adjourned War Meeting.

The adjourned war meeting last evening was called to order by the President, I. C. Sloan. The other officers were E. A. Howland and James Neil vice presidents; Chas. Holt and Joseph Baker secretaries.

Rev. H. C. Tilton, as secretary of the committee to report a plan of organization, submitted the following report:

The committee appointed "to report a plan by which the resources of Rock county, in men and means, shall be made effective in the present crisis of our country," having attended to their duties, offer the following report:

FIRST.—We recommend that immediate, earnest and systematic efforts be made to raise a regiment for the war in Rock and Green counties.

SECOND.—That measures be immediately adopted to secure the encampment of said regiment in this city, until called into the active service of the government.

To accomplish these purposes we further recommend the adoption of the following

PLAN OF ACTION.

FIRST.—That a committee of three be appointed by the president of this meeting, to be known as the Central Military Committee of Rock County, whose duties shall be—

1st. To provide for a thorough canvassing of the county, inviting the people of each town to appoint three of its citizens to aid the central committee in enrolling companies, and otherwise to assist them in raising the regiment in the shortest time possible.

2d. To co-operate with the state military authorities, recruiting officers, the citizens generally, and otherwise aid in raising and perfecting the organization and equipment of the regiment.

3d. To take immediate measures to secure the co-operation of Green county to the movement.

SECOND.—We further recommend that the board of county supervisors be respectfully and earnestly requested to adopt such legal measures as may be necessary for the support of the families of those who may enlist in their country's service.

THIRD.—That a committee of three be appointed to collect funds to defray the incidental expenses, and provide, in case of necessity, for the board of those who enlist until mustered into the service; which fund shall be paid to and be disbursed by the central committee.

Your committee are authorized to say that all companies of forty or more may be mustered into the service of the state, and boarded at the state's expense, at not more than thirty cents a day per man; also that all companies of eighty or more may be mustered into the United States service.

Your committee have the pleasure of informing the citizens further, that they have had, through two of their own number, personal interviews with Gov. Randall, and received his cordial approval of these measures, and his assurance of prompt official support of the same.

To facilitate the encampment of the regiment in this city, the Governor proposes to furnish the tents and camp equipage necessary to actual service in ten days from this date.

The Governor further assures your committee that he will respect the wishes of the companies of the regiment in the appointment of its field officers, provided the persons proposed are fully competent and temperate men.

If the achievement of our national independence was worthy of the lives and fortunes of our fathers, the maintenance of that independence is worthy of the blood and treasure of their children. Our only aim should be the re-establishment of national authority on every inch of ground in this Union—the unfurling of the national flag on every state and court house, and every fort or arsenal from which it has or will be stricken by the hand of treason—to transmit to our children this blood-bought legacy of our heroic sires, undivided and indivisible—to give to mankind the final demonstration of the power of Americans to govern themselves—that in due time this Heaven-favored land may become the asylum of the oppressed and not the home of the slave.

Respectfully submitted,
H. N. COMSTOCK,
EDWARD McKEY,
H. RICHARDSON,
S. C. SPAULDING,
H. C. TILTON,
Committee.

The report was unanimously adopted.

The chairman appointed as the central military committee recommended in the plan of organization, J. J. R. Pease, H. Richardson and H. W. Collins.

On motion, the president and vice presidents of the meeting were authorized to fill any vacancy which might occur in the committee.

Mr. Holt offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the central military committee, appointed by this meeting, be instructed to confer with the citizens of the city of Beloit and make such special arrangements with them as will promote the objects of their appointment.

Mayor Parker, of Beloit, being present and invited to speak, assured the meeting of the hearty co-operation of the citizens of Beloit.

The resolution was then unanimously adopted.

The president appointed S. C. Burnham, C. H. Conrad and S. J. M. Putnam the committee to collect funds to meet the incidental expenses incurred in organizing the regiment.

On motion, the president and vice presidents were empowered to fill any vacancies in the committee.

Messrs. Neil and J. R. Bennett spoke in deprecation of efforts now making to enlist citizens of Wisconsin in Illinois volunteer regiments, and contended that it was due to Wisconsin that the state should have the credit of the services of her own citizens, and her citizens the benefit of the extra appropriations made by the state, which to married men is $5 per month, and which would be lost by enlisting out of the state.

Sergeant Vallee, who returned with the first regiment, was introduced to the meeting, and stated that he was raising an artillery company to be composed of one hundred and forty men and five pieces of artillery.

Messrs. Tilton and Comstock addressed the meeting in some general remarks, and the meeting then adjourned.

THE KENTUCKY LEGISLATURE.—We learn from the Frankfort Commonwealth that the returns are all in, and show that the Union party have seventy-six members of the house of representatives, counting Lindsey, of Carroll, who is claimed by both parties. At any rate, the Union party will have a majority of fifty in the house—just half the members. The senate will stand twenty-seven Union to eleven secessionist. Ten of the secessionists hold over, which accounts for having so many of them in this legislature.

Last Night's Report.

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 30.

The funeral of Sergeant Graham, of the 1st Wisconsin Regiment, was very solemn and imposing and very generally attended by the citizens and soldiers of the city. The body was escorted to the church and cemetery by all of the members of the 1st regiment who were in the city, dressed in their old uniforms, the home guard and a large body of typos, editors, and members of the chamber of commerce, preceded by a band of music. The coffin was enveloped in the folds of the old regimental flag, over which was laid the uniform of the deceased. The solemn dirge of the band, tolling of bells, flags draped, and the immense concourse of people presented a grand but solemn scene. The services at the church and cemetery were very impressive. Both friends and strangers seemed overcome with grief, and many a tear was dropped for the brave volunteer.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 30.

The Baltimore American has reliable information regarding Gen. Rosencrans' division up to the afternoon of the 27th inst. Gen. Rosencrans was not only active and well, but was quietly transacting his functions at his headquarters. Various accounts are given of the forces of Generals Lee, Wise and Floyd, but no accurate information seems to be possessed out of Rosencrans' staff. Opinions differ very much among military men and others in Western Virginia as to the probabilities of anything like a general engagement between the respective armies in that quarter. Confidence is reposed in the ability of Gen. Rosencrans to maintain himself against any forces likely to attack him. He has excellent aids and officers to support him, who have doubtless helped him in providing an effective army.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.

Special to Post.—There are no exciting rumors to-day from the other side of the Potomac. The enemy's movements are believed to be intended to draw our troops out of their entrenchments in small detachments. There is no indication of any attack on any part of our lines.

A new army order to suppress the publication of all objectionable newspapers will be issued, and under its provisions General Dix will take measures against the secession journals in Baltimore.

CAPE RACE, Aug. 30.

FAYETTE, Mo., Aug. 29.

Apprehensions are being felt that the branch of the state bank at that place would be robbed. The cashier yesterday sent the specie, amounting to about $150,000, to Allen depot on North Missouri Railroad for transportation to St. Louis. Before reaching Allen the money was seized by a party of twenty secessionists headed by Captain Poindexter and carried off. Whether it will be recovered is not known, some saying that Poindexter has been induced to return it to the bank, while others assert that he will attempt to cross the Missouri river and carry it to General Price's army in the southwest.

CAIRO Aug. 30.

A flag of truce from New Madrid arrived in camp at Bird's Point this p. m. The object was exchanging prisoners. It is reported the rebels under Jeff Thompson and Hardee are falling back on New Madrid.

CHICAGO, Aug. 30.

Despatch from Cairo says: News has been received at Cape Girardeau that the rebels have retreated from Benton to Bloomfield. If this is true there are no rebels within thirty miles of the river.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.

Official despatches from East Indies state that the flag officer has received an order of the navy department for the immediate return of the squadron to the United States. One ship will however be left there, and also on the coast of Africa and Brazil, after the squadron shall have been withdrawn for blockading purposes.

The Governor of Juan Fernando has been authorized by the Spanish government to receive in that island a number of slaves who may be captured by vessels of the United States, that being free they may acquire the benefits of civilization.

Flag officer Inman has communicated this proposition to our government.

It appears from the African squadron that the secessionists have been sending circulars to naval officers of southern birth holding out inducements to leave the United States service and join that of the disunionists with equal rank.

The government employees had received one-sixth of their present month's salaries in treasury notes, and the rest in specie.—Private parties are exhibiting to prominent officials and offering to supply the army with the Prussian needle guns.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 30.

The following very important proclamation by Gen. Fremont will be in the morning papers:

PROCLAMATION.

HEADQUARTERS WEST'N DEP'T,
St. Louis, Aug. 30, 1861.

Circumstances, in my judgment, of sufficient urgency, render it necessary that the commanding general of this department should assume the administrative powers of the state. Its disorganized condition and helplessness of the civil authority, the total insecurity of life, and the devastation of property by bands of murderers and marauders, who infest nearly every county in the state, and avail themselves of the public misfortunes and the vicinity of a hostile force to gratify private and neighborhood vengeance, and who find an enemy wherever they find plunder, finally demand the severest measures to repress the daily increasing crimes and outrages which are driving off the inhabitants and ruining the state. In this condition the public safety and success of arms require unity of purpose without let or hindrance to the prompt administration of affairs.

In order, therefore, to suppress disorders, to maintain as far as is now practicable, the public peace, and to give security and protection to the persons and property of loyal citizens, I do hereby extend and declare established Martial Law throughout the state of Missouri. The lines of the army of occupation in the state, are, for the present, declared to extend to Leavenworth by way of the posts of Jefferson City, Rolla, and Ironton, to Cape Girardeau on the Mississippi river. All persons who shall be taken with arms in their hands within these lines, shall be tried by court martial, and if found guilty will be shot. The property, real and personal, of all persons in the state of Missouri who shall take up arms against the United States, or who shall be directly proven to have taken part with their enemies in the field, is declared to be confiscated to the public use, and their slaves, if any they have, are hereby declared free men. All persons who shall be proven to have destroyed, after the publication of this order, railroad tracks, bridges, or telegraphs, shall suffer the extreme penalty of the law. All persons engaged in treasonable correspondence, in giving or procuring aid to the enemies of the United States, in fomenting tumults, in disturbing the public tranquility, by creating and circulating false reports or incendiary documents, or are in their interest, are warned that they are exposing themselves to sudden and severe punishment. All persons who have been led away from their allegiance are required to return forthwith to their homes. Any such absence without sufficient cause, will be held to be presumptive evidence against them. The object of this declaration is to place in the hands of the military authorities the power to give instantaneous effect to existing laws, and to supply such deficiencies as the conduct of the war demands, but it is not intended to suspend the ordinary tribunals of the country, which will be administered by the civil officers, in the usual manner and with the customary authority, while the same can be peacefully exercised.

The commanding general will labor vigilantly for the public welfare, and in his efforts for their safety, hopes to obtain not only the acquiescence but the active support of the people of the country.

(Signed) J. C. FREMONT,
Major General, Commanding.

SPECIAL ORDER NO. 106.

HEADQUARTERS WESTERN DEPARTMENT,
St. Louis, Aug. 30, 1861.

The commanding general sincerely regrets that he finds it necessary to make reproach to the patriotic army under his command. He had hoped that the right enforcement of discipline and good example of the mass of the enlightened soldiery which he has the honor to lead, would have been sufficient to correct in good time the irregularities and license of the few who have reflected discredit upon our cause and ourselves. But the extension of martial law to all the state of Missouri, rendered suddenly necessary by its unhappy condition, renders it equally imperative to call the army to good order and vigorous discipline. They are reminded that the power to inflict the extraordinary severities of the now governing law is rigidly confined to a few, who are to be held strictly accountable for its exercise. They are also reminded that the same necessity which requires the establishment of martial law, demands also the enforcement of the military laws, which govern themselves with the same sudden severity. The commanding general therefore strictly prohibits all vexatious proceedings calculated to unnecessarily harass the citizens, and also unauthorized searches, seizures and destruction of property, except in cases of military necessity, and for which the officer authorized or permitting it will be held stictly and personally responsible. All officers commanding districts, posts or detachments, are enjoined to use the utmost prudence and circumspection in the discharge of their duties under the circumstances. A strict obedience to orders, close attention to duties, and an earnest effort to protect and avoid harassing innocent persons, is requested and expected from officers and men. The commanding general trusts that he will find few occasions to reproach the troops. He hopes and believes that he will find many to admire and approve them.

JOHN C. FREMONT,
Maj. Gen. Commanding.

QUINCY, Aug. 30.

Two trains on the Hannibal & St. Joseph railroad were fired into five miles west of Palmyra to-day. The one this afternoon the train boy, named Eligan, was killed. The conductor received several balls in his clothes and hat—one slightly wounded him in the back. Several others were slightly wounded. Telegraph and railroad communication is probably cut off until more Union troops arrive on the ground.

The report that Palmyra was taken is not confirmed.

Gen. Hurlbut, with a force of probably 2,000, is still at Kirkville. Nothing reliable from him for several days.

DETROIT Aug. 30.

The sixth, Michigan Regiment, which has rendezvoused at Kalamazoo, passed through here to day en route for the seat of war. The men were wholly uniformed before starting, and make a fine appearance.

The Fifth, Seventh, and Colonel Stockton's Independent Regiment are expected to move next week.

To-Day's Report.

MORNING DESPATCHES.

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 31.

WASHINGTON, August 30.

Times correspondence—This morning the rebels made a demonstation in force with three pieces of artillery, against our pickets stationed at Fall's Cross Roads.—After retiring a short distance our troops returned the fire, and finally compelled the enemy to retire, when they resumed the possession of their former position. One private of a Michigan regiment was slightly wounded.

Military authorities think the present movements of the rebels have no significance, except to keep their men actively employed to prevent the demoralization and the dissolution of their army, until they are prepared for a grand movement, or one is made against them.

Capt. Whipple of the engineers accompanied Mr. Lowe on his aerial reconnoisance yesterday. They observed nearly 10,000 men at work throwing up entrenchments on Munsen's Hill, between Fall's Church and Fairfax, a distance of seven miles. They concluded the enemy must be in large force.

The state department will not issue passes to any body to pass from loyal into rebel states. Since the passage through Louisville was stopped, the demand for passes has been very large. Most of the applicants are women who have been living at the north.

The general order issued by Adj. Gen. Thomas calling attention to the 57th article of the act passed for the government of the armies of the United States, has a more sweeping application than is generally supposed. It is intended to apply to all persons both in and out of the army, and to newspapers here and elsewhere throughout the north. Under it it is intended to prohibit the publication of movements connected with the raising of troops, the preparations of munitions of war, the transportation of men, and the fitting out of vessels.

World's despatch.—A number of leading financiers, including the presidents of some of the New York banks, are now in the city urging upon the President certain changes in the conduct of the war. They propose that the government shall attempt to force the rebels to abandon their threatened attack upon Washington, by making counter attacks upon various points in the south. The secretary of the treasury is gratified to know that the success of the national loan does not depend on banks, corporations or other monied institutions, but that the people alone are able and willing to subscribe all the money that is needed. It will satisfy the public and increase popular confidence in the government to state that the attorney general has decided that the loan is not taxable either by state or local authorities.

Senator Wade, of Ohio, before leaving Washington, was authorised by the government to raise a regiment of cavalry and a battery of artillery for the war.

Tribune's despatch.—A letter from St. Louis states that there is no doubt that the rebels intended and expected to be in full possession of St. Louis before now, and that August 20th, the time fixed upon for the active co-operation of secessionists in that city, nothing could have prevented the plot from succeeding, had they been victorious at Springfield. Gen. Lyon knowing this, sacrificed himself, and saved the city a second time by his victory, for such it was in fact. Our friends have gained twice and are safe.

Advices received at the war department confirm the report that the Kiowas and Camanches, from whom the government last year withheld their annual presents on account of previous rascalities, have united their fortunes with the southern confederacy. The principal rendezvous of the tribes is near Fort Bent.

Herald's dispatch.—It is estimated by men entitled to know, that there are 75,000 of the rebel army between Harpers's Ferry and Edward's Ferry, awaiting an opportunity to force a crossing into Maryland, and willing to take the chances there of an insurrection of the malcontents. That will enable them to transfer the conflict to that state, and place Washington between two rebel armies. In the meantime, hundreds of Maryland secessionists are gathering upon the eastern shore for the purpose of carrying out the programme of cutting off direct communication between Philadelphia and Baltimore, simultaneously to the passage of the rebels across the Potomac, at the little town of Eaton, in Talbot county. These arrivals have amounted to as many as five hundred per day. The rebels are in such a condition that they are compelled either to attempt to advance or retire from the Potomac. The resources of this region are exhausted, and they cannot much longer subsist their immense force on the Virginia side of the Potomac. They must therefore avail themselves of the richness of the splendid agricultural district of western Maryland, or fall back at least upon the Rappahanock. Their desperation will make lively times along the Potomac in a few days, and perhaps in a few hours.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

FORT MONROE, Aug. 30.

The gun boat Iroquois, from the blockade off Savannah, arrived last evening.—She reports having heard heavy cannonading when off Hatteras Inlet, and also spoke a brig which had met the federal fleet. We have no other intelligence of the expedition. One of the confederate prisoners retained for some days at Old Point, expressed the opinion that the federal vessels would be blown up by sub-marine batteries, which Lieut. Maury has placed in Hatteras Inlet, and other assailable points on the Carolina coast.

Since the quarrel between the Alabama and Virginia troops at Yorktown, which resulted in killing eight men, the Virginia regiments have been transferred to Norfolk. The Alabamaians accused the latter of cowardice.

This morning a small secession tug, mounted with a rifled brass cannon, ran out from Norfolk to within two and a half miles of Newport News. She fired 23 shots at the United States frigate Savannah, no person was injured. The tug was in range of but two of the Savannah's guns and Sawyer's rifled cannon on shore. When they were brought to bear on her, she ran down towards Old Point and fired two shells, one of which exploded near the Seminole, and the other close to Rip Raps. The fire was returned, whereupon she retreated behind Sewall's Point.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.

David M. Stone, long the commercial editor, and Tom C. Prime, have succeeded to the interests of Gerard Hallock, esq., in the Journal of Commerce, and in connection with Messrs. Wm. H. Hallock and Wm. A. Hall, will hereafter conduct the paper. The government has removed its interdict against the circulation of the Journal of Commerce over the mail and express routes of the United States.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 31.

The remains of Gen. Lyon passed through this city at 8 o'clock this morning, escorted by the military to Trenton depot. The flags of the city are at half mast. Numbers crowded the streets through which the procession passed.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.

Special to Post.—All regular correspondents of loyal newspapers are now granted passes to cross the Potomac, temporary restrictions having been removed.

Government is using treasury notes in part payment of clerks in departments.

Advices received from Western Virginia, state that the loyal men of that region are rapidly enlisting in the volunteer service. A Union meeting has just been held in Alexandria, Virginia.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.

It seems certain that the administration, at present, has no intention whatever to avail itself of the permission sanctioned by congress, for the collection of duties on ship board, or to the closing of ports which on the land side are in possession of insurrectionary authorities. Our government will rely on the existence and efficiency of the blockade for a sufficient answer to any reclaimation which may be made by foreign governments in regard to their maratime rights.

The Intelligencer of to day contains an article to the above effect, and this telegraph agency has such authentic information as warrants the correctness of the statement.

The Markets.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.

Receipts of flour 2,989 barrels, market 5c better with fair export demand, sales 10,000 barrels, 4,20a4,30 super state; 4,50a4,65 extra state; 4,20a4,30 super western; 4,45a4,65 common to medium extra western; 5,05a5,10 shipping brands extra R. H. O. Canada flour quiet and unchanged. Rye flour steady, 2,30a3,80. Receipts of wheat 93,345 bushels, market heavy and drooping for common and steady for sound, sales 50,000 bushels, 1,06 Milwaukee club.

EXPRESS CONVENIENCES.—We have the formal notification of the Government that no further communication between the U. S. and the rebel districts will be allowed to be made through the agency of Express Companies. This will be a severe blow to the Secessionist. Adams' Express Company has been as useful to the confederate government, in its business, up to this date entirely legitimate, as the United States mail could be. But the United States have derived no similar advantage. For while rebels have been allowed everywhere in the loyal States to pick up valuable information and send it to the south, no Union man could do a like service in the sonth, for the United States government and live. This unfair state of things is now changed. We are on a footing, at last, with the enemies of our Government.—New York Times.

BUT ONE HOPE FOR THE REPUBLIC.—The New York Leader says: "There is but one hope for the republic. It must assert itself, crush out rebellion and compel the fear and respect of its enemies abroad and at home or all is lost! There is no middle ground—there is no middle course. Let the men of the people shake off this discouragement, and recognize at once their duty and our power to triumph, and the work will soon be done. Then—the duty of the present met—we can easily take care of the future."

HIGHLY IMPORTANT ARREST AT PHILADELPHIA.—Samuel Eaken, who was arrested at Philadelphia on a charge of treason, and taken to Fort Lafayette, is one of the most skillful of mechanics and chemists, and has been receiving high pay from the Richmond authorities. At the time of his arrest he was endeavoring to get a force of mechanics to take south, and to buy telegraph and other material. A correspondent of the New York Herald says that in searching his house in Philadelphia, some curious contrivances were discovered.—Among them about eight thousand feet of extremely minute insulated telegraph wire, of the thickness of thread, wrapped in silk, and adapted to forming connection with any ordinary wire. The color of the thread was green, and in some respects, it was similar to the fragments of cable picked up near Fortress Monroe. At a distance of ten yards this wire was invisible, and it could be trailed through grass and herbage, over any extent of country, without detection. The object of this wire was, doubtless, to lead off messages from the government lines, and put the rebels in possession of every important movement. Eaken insisted that it was an improved wire for insulating magnets; but well informed witnesses disagreed with him. A percussion cap was likewise discovered, that would ignite cannon cartridges through the thick metallic coverings, and thus avoid the necessity of tearing off the envelope. The model of a cannon, likewise, came to light, that the inventor supposes capable of spliting a seventy-four frigate in half at a distance of three miles. A miniature torpedo, for submarine purposes, consisting essentially of a gutta percha bag and tube was discovered, and this, from the prisoner's own admission, was to be used in blowing up war vessels. Among the prisoner's private papers we may enumerate a railroad pass, directing the various southern railroads to pass the bearer to any point in the confederacy, and charge his expenses to the Davis government; a letter from the director of the Richmond armory, containing grave matters not yet made public; and one from George B. Sloat, the precise nature of which is not yet explained, which the prisoner was detected in chewing to pieces. He succeeded in swallowing half the missive. More than $1,000 in gold were likewise taken from his effects.—Cincinnati Gazette.

SECESSION FROM SECESSION.—We learn by recent arrivals from the south that the governor of Georgia has recalled the troops of that state from Virginia in order to suppress insurrection at home. This is probably an excuse—the real reason being hostility to Jefferson Davis and his cabinet, on the ground of their interfering with state rights, and organizing forces in Georiga for the war without the authority of the governor, in derogation of the sovereignty of the state, and in opposition to the constitution and the principles of the revolution of 1776. The quarrel has been going on for some time, having been first developed in the case of General Bartow, who lost his life at Bull Run, and who had taken troops and arms from the state in obedience to Jefferson Davis and in spite of Governor Brown. The quarrel culminated on the 2d inst., when the governor disbanded a brigade at Atlanta, commanded by General Phillips. Governor Brown seized the opportunity to assail Davis & Co. He said "the battle of sovereignty which was fought at the revolution had to be fought over again," as there was an attempt now being made at the south "to destroy state sovereignty and build upon its ruins either a monarchy or a consolidated aristocracy." That this quarrel will end in the secession of Georgia from the seceded states there appears to be little doubt; and as, according to their own doctrine, a state has a right to secede, the confederate government are without any remedy. Such is the absurdity to which the principle of secession leads, and such the denouement which we long since predicted.

The practical working of the doctrines of the rebel leaders to the disintegration of their own government, shows that they will all go to pieces. But if the evil were to be confined to the south we would not have so much reason to regret it; but if the South succeeds in establishing its independence, and with it the principle of secession, the same evil will prevail at the north, and secession after secession will be the result, till at last the thirty-four independent military republics, all warring against each other. The way to prevent this catastrophe is to render the struggle for the Union triumphant by giving it all the moral and physical aid which it needs. New York Herald.

SECESSIONISTS IN MILWAUKEE.—There are secessionists in Milwaukee as well as in Chicago. We learn from the officers of the commissary department, that a doctor, of southern birth and slavery proclivities, visited the quarter-master's office, on Main street, the other day, and denounced the war and defended the southern traitors in regular secession style, till at last he was ordered out of the office. There are a few such citizens here who are giving aid and comfort to the rebels, and doing what they can to bring the government into contempt. They are bold, defiant, having all the assurance, impudence and haughtiness of plantation masters. They need watching.—We are not sure btu a public meeting and the appointment of a vigilance committee to look after home traitors and spies, are needed here as much as in Chicago. Without doubt they are in correspondence with the southern rebels. We must weed out traitors at home, as well as fight them on their own soil.—Daily Life.

THE RAILROAD.—The Times says that a meeting of the stockholders of the Sugar River Valley Railroad, and their friends was lately held at Albany. It was well attended, and several thousand dollars were subscribed.

Republican State Convention.

A Republican State Convention will be held at the Capital, in the city of Madison, at 12 o'clock M., on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of September next, for the purpose of nominating candidates for state officers.

Each assembly district, under the new apportionment, will be entitled to two delegates in the convention.

The committee recommend that the primary meetings for the selection of delegates be held on or before the 14th day of September, and that the district committees issue early calls for such meetings, that the people may be thoroughly notified, and choose delegates who fairly reflect their wishes.

HORACE RUBLEE,
Chairman State Republican Central Com.
Madison, August 12, 1861.

The Right Course at Last.

Gen. Fremont has declared martial law throughout the state of Missouri. He also proclaims that every man found in arms against the government north of the line of military occupation, extending from Fort Leavenworth to Cape Girardeau, SHALL BE SHOT; that the property, real and personal, of all persons in the state of Missouri who shall have taken up arms against the United States, or who shall be directly proven to have taken part with their enemies in the field, is DECLARED CONFISCATED, and their SLAVES, if any they have, are declared FREE MEN.

The right course to put down the rebellion has at last been adopted. All honor to the MAN who has had the nerve and the will to do his whole duty. The country will sustain him, the west will pour out her men and money without stint. Hurrah for Fremont and the army of the west! Let us make ready, and when the first frost spreads over the fields of the south, let it witness an army of one hundred thousand men, fully prepared to march under the banner of the Pathfinder, down the great valley to the mouth of the Mississippi.—Then let the word be—ONWARD TO NEW ORLEANS.

The Way to do It.

The way in which the committee appointed at the war meeting last evening have gone to work indicates that they mean to do their duty in the most prompt and efficient manner, and we shall be disappointed if their labors do not result in the immediate raising of a regiment for the war in this county and Green. The meeting itself was animated with more spirit and determined zeal than any we have ever before attended even in the most hotly contested election times, and we should expect that the committee, which was judiciously chosen, would partake of the same animation. It is even so. Each member of the committee is a working man in the best sense of the term, and we hope their efforts will be most heartily seconded by the people throughout the counties in which they are to operate. The crisis certainly calls for earnestness, for activity, for patriotic devotion to our country's cause. The people feel the importance of this crisis and are determined to act accordingly.

The Right Spirit.

At the meeting last night the right spirit was manifested. If there was any fear on the part of any one that controverted subjects would be introduced, the proceedings of the first and this adjourned meeting have effectually dispelled them. The single and permanent object of sustaining the government was alone entertained, and the plan of operations reported by the committee met the approbation of all. It is to be hoped that a similar spirit will animate the people of the whole region in which the proposed regiment is to be raised, and the work necessary to raise it will be at once commenced and no effort remitted until the object is accomplished. The work is large, but it can be effected, and most unquestionably ought to be. Activity and unanimity is the duty of all.

NOT APPOINTED.—The Madison Journal says—The report, so prevalent here that we supposed there was no question about it, that Lieut. Col. Harris had been appointed colonel of the second regiment proves incorrect. On inquiry at the capitol, we find that Col. O'Connor's resignation had not yet been received there."

REBEL SYMPATHISERS WATCHED.—Already, through the activity of the Provost Marshall, General Porter's department, the lines of communication with the rebels from their agents here are almost entirely broken up. Intercepted correspondence shows how little they know of the real state of things in and about Washington, and how their camps are filled with conflicting rumors in place of the trustworthy intelligence they formerly had of our movements.—Women who have had so much to do with conveying surreptitious intelligence are narrowly watched—and I may add that there is not a family of rebel sympathisers in the city but is under the surveillance of the Government.

The Pope is rapidly failing in health.—The Milan Perseveranza has a letter from Rome, which says: "The Pope is ill. He has not only the chronic affection of the legs, which are swollen and covered with large sores, but he has a disease of the heart which may carry him off at any moment.—Dr. Carpi gives it as his opinion that he cannot live for three months."

Adjourned War Meeting.

The adjourned war meeting last evening was called to order by the President, I. C. Sloan. The other officers were E. A. Howland and James Neil vice presidents; Chas. Holt and Joseph Baker secretaries.

Rev. H. C. Tilton, as secretary of the committee to report a plan of organization, submitted the following report:

The committee appointed "to report a plan by which the resources of Rock county, in men and means, shall be made effective in the present crisis of our country," having attended to their duties, offer the following report:

FIRST.—We recommend that immediate, earnest and systematic efforts be made to raise a regiment for the war in Rock and Green counties.

SECOND.—That measures be immediately adopted to secure the encampment of said regiment in this city, until called into the active service of the government.

To accomplish these purposes we further recommend the adoption of the following

PLAN OF ACTION.

FIRST.—That a committee of three be appointed by the president of this meeting, to be known as the Central Military Committee of Rock County, whose duties shall be—

1st. To provide for a thorough canvassing of the county, inviting the people of each town to appoint three of its citizens to aid the central committee in enrolling companies, and otherwise to assist them in raising the regiment in the shortest time possible.

2d. To co-operate with the state military authorities, recruiting officers, the citizens generally, and otherwise aid in raising and perfecting the organization and equipment of the regiment.

3d. To take immediate measures to secure the co-operation of Green county to the movement.

SECOND.—We further recommend that the board of county supervisors be respectfully and earnestly requested to adopt such legal measures as may be necessary for the support of the families of those who may enlist in their country's service.

THIRD.—That a committee of three be appointed to collect funds to defray the incidental expenses, and provide, in case of necessity, for the board of those who enlist until mustered into the service; which fund shall be paid to and be disbursed by the central committee.

Your committee are authorized to say that all companies of forty or more may be mustered into the service of the state, and boarded at the state's expense, at not more than thirty cents a day per man; also that all companies of eighty or more may be mustered into the United States service.

Your committee have the pleasure of informing the citizens further, that they have had, through two of their own number, personal interviews with Gov. Randall, and received his cordial approval of these measures, and his assurance of prompt official support of the same.

To facilitate the encampment of the regiment in this city, the Governor proposes to furnish the tents and camp equipage necessary to actual service in ten days from this date.

The Governor further assures your committee that he will respect the wishes of the companies of the regiment in the appointment of its field officers, provided the persons proposed are fully competent and temperate men.

If the achievement of our national independence was worthy of the lives and fortunes of our fathers, the maintenance of that independence is worthy of the blood and treasure of their children. Our only aim should be the re-establishment of national authority on every inch of ground in this Union—the unfurling of the national flag on every state and court house, and every fort or arsenal from which it has or will be stricken by the hand of treason—to transmit to our children this blood-bought legacy of our heroic sires, undivided and indivisible—to give to mankind the final demonstration of the power of Americans to govern themselves—that in due time this Heaven-favored land may become the asylum of the oppressed and not the home of the slave.

Respectfully submitted,
H. N. COMSTOCK,
EDWARD McKEY,
H. RICHARDSON,
S. C. SPAULDING,
H. C. TILTON,
Committee.

The report was unanimously adopted.

The chairman appointed as the central military committee recommended in the plan of organization, J. J. R. Pease, H. Richardson and H. W. Collins.

On motion, the president and vice presidents of the meeting were authorized to fill any vacancy which might occur in the committee.

Mr. Holt offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the central military committee, appointed by this meeting, be instructed to confer with the citizens of the city of Beloit and make such special arrangements with them as will promote the objects of their appointment.

Mayor Parker, of Beloit, being present and invited to speak, assured the meeting of the hearty co-operation of the citizens of Beloit.

The resolution was then unanimously adopted.

The president appointed S. C. Burnham, C. H. Conrad and S. J. M. Putnam the committee to collect funds to meet the incidental expenses incurred in organizing the regiment.

On motion, the president and vice presidents were empowered to fill any vacancies in the committee.

Messrs. Neil and J. R. Bennett spoke in deprecation of efforts now making to enlist citizens of Wisconsin in Illinois volunteer regiments, and contended that it was due to Wisconsin that the state should have the credit of the services of her own citizens, and her citizens the benefit of the extra appropriations made by the state, which to married men is $5 per month, and which would be lost by enlisting out of the state.

Sergeant Vallee, who returned with the first regiment, was introduced to the meeting, and stated that he was raising an artillery company to be composed of one hundred and forty men and five pieces of artillery.

Messrs. Tilton and Comstock addressed the meeting in some general remarks, and the meeting then adjourned.

THE KENTUCKY LEGISLATURE.—We learn from the Frankfort Commonwealth that the returns are all in, and show that the Union party have seventy-six members of the house of representatives, counting Lindsey, of Carroll, who is claimed by both parties. At any rate, the Union party will have a majority of fifty in the house—just half the members. The senate will stand twenty-seven Union to eleven secessionist. Ten of the secessionists hold over, which accounts for having so many of them in this legislature.

Last Night's Report.

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 30.

The funeral of Sergeant Graham, of the 1st Wisconsin Regiment, was very solemn and imposing and very generally attended by the citizens and soldiers of the city. The body was escorted to the church and cemetery by all of the members of the 1st regiment who were in the city, dressed in their old uniforms, the home guard and a large body of typos, editors, and members of the chamber of commerce, preceded by a band of music. The coffin was enveloped in the folds of the old regimental flag, over which was laid the uniform of the deceased. The solemn dirge of the band, tolling of bells, flags draped, and the immense concourse of people presented a grand but solemn scene. The services at the church and cemetery were very impressive. Both friends and strangers seemed overcome with grief, and many a tear was dropped for the brave volunteer.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 30.

The Baltimore American has reliable information regarding Gen. Rosencrans' division up to the afternoon of the 27th inst. Gen. Rosencrans was not only active and well, but was quietly transacting his functions at his headquarters. Various accounts are given of the forces of Generals Lee, Wise and Floyd, but no accurate information seems to be possessed out of Rosencrans' staff. Opinions differ very much among military men and others in Western Virginia as to the probabilities of anything like a general engagement between the respective armies in that quarter. Confidence is reposed in the ability of Gen. Rosencrans to maintain himself against any forces likely to attack him. He has excellent aids and officers to support him, who have doubtless helped him in providing an effective army.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.

Special to Post.—There are no exciting rumors to-day from the other side of the Potomac. The enemy's movements are believed to be intended to draw our troops out of their entrenchments in small detachments. There is no indication of any attack on any part of our lines.

A new army order to suppress the publication of all objectionable newspapers will be issued, and under its provisions General Dix will take measures against the secession journals in Baltimore.

CAPE RACE, Aug. 30.

The steamship Arago from Havre via Southampton 21st inst., passed here to day and was boarded by the press yacht. The Aetna, which broke her shaft when 500 miles on her voyage to New York, had arrived back at Queenstown.

FAYETTE, Mo., Aug. 29.

Apprehensions are being felt that the branch of the state bank at that place would be robbed. The cashier yesterday sent the specie, amounting to about $150,000, to Allen depot on North Missouri Railroad for transportation to St. Louis. Before reaching Allen the money was seized by a party of twenty secessionists headed by Captain Poindexter and carried off. Whether it will be recovered is not known, some saying that Poindexter has been induced to return it to the bank, while others assert that he will attempt to cross the Missouri river and carry it to General Price's army in the southwest.

CAIRO Aug. 30.

A flag of truce from New Madrid arrived in camp at Bird's Point this p. m. The object was exchanging prisoners. It is reported the rebels under Jeff Thompson and Hardee are falling back on New Madrid.

CHICAGO, Aug. 30.

Despatch from Cairo says: News has been received at Cape Girardeau that the rebels have retreated from Benton to Bloomfield. If this is true there are no rebels within thirty miles of the river.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.

Official despatches from East Indies state that the flag officer has received an order of the navy department for the immediate return of the squadron to the United States. One ship will however be left there, and also on the coast of Africa and Brazil, after the squadron shall have been withdrawn for blockading purposes.

The Governor of Juan Fernando has been authorized by the Spanish government to receive in that island a number of slaves who may be captured by vessels of the United States, that being free they may acquire the benefits of civillization.

Flag officer Inman has communicated this proposition to our government.

It appears from the African squadron that the secessionists have been sending circulars to naval officers of southern birth holding out inducements to leave the United States service and join that of the disunionists with equal rank.

The government employees had received one-sixth of their present month's selaries in treasury notes, and the rest in specie.—Private parties are exhibiting to prominent officials and offering to supply the army with the Prussian needle guns.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 30.

The following very important proclamation by Gen. Fremont will be in the morning papers:

PROCLAMATION.

HEADQUARTERS WEST'N DEP'T.
St. Louis, Aug. 30, 1861.

Circumstances, in my judgment, of sufficient urgency, render it necessary that the commanding general of this department should assume the administrative powers of the state. Its disorganized condition and helplessness of the civil authority, the total insecurity of life, and the devastation of property by bands of murderers and marauders, who infest nearly every county in the state, and avail themselves of the public misfortunes and the vicinity of a hostile force to gratify private and neighborhood vengeance, and who find an enemy wherever they find plunder, finally demand the severest measures to repress the daily increasing crimes and outrages which are driving off the inhabitants and ruining the state. In this condition the public safety and success of arms require unity of purpose without let or hindrance to the prompt administration of affairs.

In order, therefore, to suppress disorders, to maintain as far as is now practicable, the public peace, and to give security and protection to the persons and property of loyal citizens, I do hereby extend and declare established Martial Law throughout the state of Missouri. The lines of the army of occupation in the state, are, for the present, declared to extend to Leavenworth by way of the posts of Jefferson City, Rolla, and Ironton, to Cape Girardeau on the Mississippi river. All persons who shall be taken with arms in their hands within these lines, shall be tried by court martial, and if found guilty will be shot. The property, real and personal, of all persons in the state of Missouri who shall take up arms against the United States, or who shall be directly proven to have taken part with their enemies in the field, is declared to be confiscated to the public use, and their slaves, if any they have, are hereby declared free men. All persons who shall be proven to have destroyed, after the publication of this order, railroad tracks, bridges, or telegraphs, shall suffer the extreme penalty of the law. All persons engaged in treasonable correspondence, in giving or procuring aid to the enemies of the United States, in fomenting tumults, in disturbing the public tranquility, by creating and circulating false reports or incendiary documents, or are in their interest, are warned that they are exposing themselves to sudden and severe punishment. All persons who have been led away from their allegiance are required to return forthwith to their homes. Any such absence without sufficient cause, will be held to be presumptive evidence against them. The object of this declaration is to place in the hands of the military authorities the power to give instantaneous effect to existing laws, and to supply such deficiencies as the conduct of the war demands, but it is not intended to suspend the ordinary tribunals of the country, which will be administered by the civil officers, in the usual manner and with the customary authority, while the same can be peacefully exercised.

The commanding general will labor vigilantly for the public welfare, and in his efforts for their safety, hopes to obtain not only the acquiesence but the active support of the people of the country.

(Signed) J. C. FREMONT,
Major General, Commanding.

SPECIAL ORDER NO. 106.

HEADQUARTERS WESTERN DEPARTMENT,
St. Louis, Aug. 30, 1861.

The commanding general sincerely regrets that he finds it necessary to make reproach to the patriotic army under his command. He had hoped that the right enforcement of discipline and good example of the mass of the enlightened soldiery which he has the honor to lead, would have been sufficient to correct in good time the irregularities and license of the few who have reflected discredit upon our cause and ourselves. But the extension of martial law to all the state of Missouri, rendered suddenly necessary by its unhappy condition, renders it equally imperative to call the army to good order and vigorous discipline. They are reminded that the power to inflict the extraordinary severities of the now governing law is rigidly confined to a few, who are to be held strictly accountable for its exercise. They are also reminded that the same necessity which requires the establishment of martial law, demands also the enforcement of the military laws, which govern themselves with the same sudden severity. The commanding general therefore strictly prohibits all vexatious proceedings calculated to unnecessarily harass the citizens, and also unauthorized searches, seizures and destruction of property, except in cases of military necessity, and for which the officer authorized or permitting it will be held stictly and personally responsible. All officers commanding districts, posts or detachments, are enjoined to use the utmost prudence and circumspection in the discharge of their duties under the circumstances. A strict obedience to orders, close attention to duties, and an earnest effort to protect and avoid harassing innocent persons, is requested and expected from officers and men. The commanding general trusts that he will find few occasions to reproach the troops. He hopes and believes that he will find many to admire and approve them.

JOHN C. FREMONT,
Maj. Gen. Commanding.

QUINCY, Aug. 30.

Two trains on the Hannibal & St. Joseph railroad were fired into five miles west of Palmyra to-day. The one this afternoon the train boy, named Eligan, was killed. The conductor received several balls in his clothes and hat—one slightly wounded him in the back. Several others were slightly wounded. Telegraph and railroad communication is probably cut off until more Union troops arrive on the ground.

The report that Palmyra was taken is not confirmed.

Gen. Hurlbut, with a force of probably 2,000, ir still at Kirkville. Nothing reliable from him for several days.

DETROIT Aug. 30.

The sixth, Michigan Regiment, which has rendezvoused at Kalamazoo, passed through here to day en route for the seat of war. The men were wholly uniformed before starting, and make a fine appearance.

The Fifth, Seventh, and Colonel Stockton's Independent Regiment are expected to move next week.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DESPATCHES.

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 31.

WASHINGTON, August 30.

Times correspondence—This morning the rebels made a demonstation in force with three pieces of artillery, against our pickets stationed at Fall's Cross Roads.—After retiring a short distance our troops returned the fire, and finally compelled the enemy to retire, when they resumed the possession of their former position. One private of a Michigan regiment was slightly wounded.

Military authorities think the present movements of the rebels have no significance, except to keep their men actively employed to prevent the demoralization and the dissolution of their army, until they are prepared for a grand movement, or one is made against them.

Capt. Whipple of the engineers accompanied Mr. Lowe on his ærial reconnoisance yesterday. They observed nearly 10,000 men at work throwing up entrenchments on Munsen's Hill, between Fall's Church and Fairfax, a distance of seven miles. They concluded the enemy must be in large force.

The state department will not issue passes to any body to pass from loyal into rebel states. Since the passage through Louisville was stopped, the demand for passes has been very large. Most of the applicants are women who have been living at the north.

The general order issued by Adj. Gen. Thomas calling attention to the 57th article of the act passed for the government of the armies of the United States, has a more sweeping application than is generally supposed. It is intended to apply to all persons both in and out of the army, and to newspapers here and elsewhere throughout the north. Under it it is intended to prohibit the publication of movements connected with the raising of troops, the preparations of munitions of war, the transportation of men, and the fitting out of vessels.

Mr. Bates left Washington this morning for St. Louis. In his absence Titian L. Coffe has been commissioned as attorney general.

World's despatch.—A number of leading franciers, including the presidents of some of the New York banks, are now in the city urging upon the President certain changes in the conduct of the war. They propose that the government shall attempt to force the rebels to abandon their threatened attack upon Washington, by making counter attacks upon various points in the south. The secretary of the treasury is gratified to know that the success of the national loan does not depend on banks, corporations or other monied institutions, but that the people alone are able and willing to subscribe all the money that is needed. It will satisfy the public and increase popular confidence in the government to state that the attorney general has decided that the loan is not taxable either by state or local authorities.

Senator Wade, of Ohio, before leaving Washington, was authorised by the government to raise a regiment of cavalry and a battery of artillery for the war.

Tribune's despatch.—A letter from St. Louis states that there is no doubt that the rebels intended and expected to be in full possession of St. Louis before now, and that August 20th, the time fixed upon for the active co-operation of secessionists in that city, nothing could have prevented the plot from succeeding, had they been victorious at Springfield. Gen. Lyon knowing this, sacrificed himself, and saved the city a second time by his victory, for such it was in fact. Our friends have gained twice and are safe.

Advices received at the war department confirm the report that the Kiowas and Camanches, from whom the government last year withheld their annual presents on account of previous rascalities, have united their fortunes with the southern confederacy. The principal rendezvous of the tribes is near Fort Bent.

Herald's dispatch.—It is estimated by men entitled to know, that there are 75,000 of the rebel army between Harpers's Ferry and Edward's Ferry, awaiting an opportunity to force a crossing into Maryland, and willing to take the chances there of an insurrection of the malcontents. That will enable them to transfer the conflict to that state, and place Washington between two rebel armies. In the meantime, hundreds of Maryland secessionists are gathering upon the eastern shore for the purpose of carrying out the programme of cutting off direct communication between Philadelphia and Baltimore, simultaneously to the passage of the rebels across the Potomac, at the little town of Eaton, in Talbot county. These arrivals have amounted to as many as five hundred per day. The rebels are in such a condition that they are compelled either to attempt to advance or retire from the Potomac. The resources of this region are exhausted, and they cannot much longer subsist their immense force on the Virginia side of the Potomac. They must therefore avail themselves of the richness of the splendid agricultural district of western Maryland, or fall back at least upon the Rappahanock. Their desperation will make lively times along the Potomac in a few days, and perhaps in a few hours.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

FORT MONROE, Aug. 30.

The gun boat Iroquois, from the blockade off Savannah, arrived last evening.—She reports having heard heavy cannonading when off Hatteras Inlet, and also spoke a brig which had met the federal fleet. We have no other intelligence of the expedition. One of the confederate prisoners retained for some days at Old Point, expressed the opinion that the federal vessels would be blown up by sub-marine batteries, which Lieut. Maury has placed in Hatteras Inlet, and other assailable points on the Carolina coast.

Since the quarrel between the Alabama and Virginia troops at Yorktown, which resulted in killing eight men, the Virginia regiments have been transferred to Norfolk. The Alabamaians accused the latter of cowardice.

This morning a small secession tug, mounted with a rifled brass cannon, ran out from Norfolk to within two and a half miles of Newport News. She fired 23 shots at the United States frigate Savannah, no person was injured. The tug was in range of but two of the Savannah's guns and Sawyer's rifled cannon on shore. When they were brought to bear on her, she ran down towards Old Point and fired two shells, one of which exploded near the Seminole, and the other close to Rip Raps. The fire was returned, whereupon she retreated behind Sewall's Point.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.

David M. Stone, long the commercial editor, and Tom C. Prime, have succeeded to the interests of Gerard Hallock, esq., in the Journal of Commerce, and in connection with Messrs. Wm. H. Hallock and Wm. A. Hall, will hereafter conduct the paper. The government has removed its interdict against the circulation of the Journal of Commerce over the mail and express routes of the United States.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 31.

The remains of Gen. Lyon passed through this city at 8 o'clock this morning, escorted by the military to Trenton depot. The flags of the city are at half mast. Numbers crowded the streets through which the procession passed.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.

Special to Post.—All regular correspondents of loyal newspapers are now granted passes to cross the Potomac, temporary restrictions having been removed.

Government is using treasury notes in part payment of clerks in departments.

Advices received from Western Virginia, state that the loyal men of that region are rapidly enlisting in the volunteer service. A Union meeting has juft been held in Alexandria, Virginia.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.

It seems certain that the administration, at present, has no intention whatever to avail itself of the permission sanctioned by congress, for the collection of duties on ship board, or to the closing of ports which on the land side are in possession of insurrectionary authorities. Our government will rely on the existence and efficiency of the blockade for a sufficient answer to any reclaimation which may be made by foreign governments in regard to their maratime rights.

The Intelligencer of to day contains an article to the above effect, and this telegraph agency has such authentic information as warrants the correctness of the statement.

The Markets.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.

Receipts of flour 2,989 barrels, market 5c better with fair export demand, sales 10,000 barrels, 4,20a4,30 super state; 4,50a4,65 extra state; 4,20a4,30 super western; 4,45a4,65 common to medium extra western; 5,05a5,10 shipping brands extra R. H. O. Canada flour quiet and unchanged. Rye flour steady, 2,30a3,80. Receipts of wheat 93,345 bushels, market heavy and drooping for common and steady for sound, sales 50,000 bushels, 1,06 Milwaukee club.

EXPRESS CONVENIENCES.—We have the formal notification of the Government that no further communication between the U. S. and the rebel districts will be allowed to be made through the agency of Express Companies. This will be a severe blow to the Secessionist. Adams' Express Company has been as useful to the confederate government, in its business, up to this date entirely legitimate, as the United States mail could be. But the United States have derived no similar advantage. For while rebels have been allowed everywhere in the loyal States to pick up valuable information and send it to the south, no Union man could do a like service in the south, for the United States government and live. This unfair state of things is now changed. We are on a footing, at last, with the enemies of our Government.—New York Times.

BUT ONE HOPE FOR THE REPUBLIC.—The New York Leader says: "There is but one hope for the republic. It must assert itself, crush out rebellion and compel the fear and respect of its enemies abroad and at home or all is lost! There is no middle ground—there is no middle course. Let the men of the people shake off this discouragement, and recognize at once their duty and our power to triumph, and the work will soon be done. Then—the duty of the present met—we can easily take care of the future."

HIGHLY IMPORTANT ARREST AT PHILADELPHIA.—Samuel Eaken, who was arrested at Philadelphia on a charge of treason, and taken to Fort Lafayette, is one of the most skillful of mechanics and chemists, and has been receiving high pay from the Richmond authorities. At the time of his arrest he was endeavoring to get a force of mechanics to take south, and to buy telegraph and other material. A correspondent of the New York Herald says that in searching his house in Philadelphia, some curious contrivances were discovered.—Among them about eight thousand feet of extremely minute insulated telegraph wire, of the thickness of thread, wrapped in silk, and adapted to forming connection with any ordinary wire. The color of the thread was green, and in some respects, it was similar to the fragments of cable picked up near Fortress Monroe. At a distance of ten yards this wire was invisible, and it could be trailed through grass and herbage, over any extent of country, without detection. The object of this wire was, doubtless, to lead off messages from the government lines, and put the rebels in possession of every important movement. Eaken insisted that it was an improved wire for insulating magnets; but well informed witnesses disagreed with him. A percussion cap was likewise discovered, that would ignite cannon cartridges through the thick metallic coverings, and thus avoid the necessity of tearing off the envelope. The model of a cannon, likewise, came to light, that the inventor supposes capable of splitting a seventy-four frigate in half at a distance of three miles. A miniature torpedo, for submarine purposes, consisting essentially of a gutta percha bag and tube was discovered, and this, from the prisoner's own admission, was to be used in blowing up war vessels. Among the prisoner's private papers we may enumerate a railroad pass, directing the various southern railroads to pass the bearer to any point in the confederacy, and charge his expenses to the Davis government; a letter from the director of the Richmond armory, containing grave matters not yet made public; and one from George B. Sloat, the precise nature of which is not yet explained, which the prisoner was detected in chewing to pieces. He succeeded in swallowing half the missive. More than $1,000 in gold were likewise taken from his effects.—Cincinnati Gazette.

SECESSION FROM SECESSION.—We learn by recent arrivals from the south that the governor of Georgia has recalled the troops of that state from Virginia in order to suppress insurrection at home. This is probably an excuse—the real reason being hostility to Jefferson Davis and his cabinet, on the ground of their interfering with state rights, and organizing forces in Georiga for the war without the authority of the governor, in derogation of the sovereignty of the state, and in opposition to the constitution and the principles of the revolution of 1776. The quarrel has been going on for some time, having been first developed in the case of General Bartow, who lost his life at Bull Run, and who had taken troops and arms from the state in obedience to Jefferson Davis and in spite of Governor Brown. The quarrel culminated on the 2d inst., when the governor disbanded a brigade at Atlanta, commanded by General Phillips. Governor Brown seized the opportunity to assail Davis & Co. He said "the battle of sovereignty which was fought at the revolution had to be fought over again," as there was an attempt now being made at the south "to destroy state sovereignty and build upon its ruins either a monarchy or a consolidated aristocracy." That this quarrel will end in the secession of Georgia from the seceded states there appears to be little doubt; and as, according to their own doctrine, a state has a right to secede, the confederate government are without any remedy. Such is the absurdity to which the principle of secession leads, and such the denouement which we long since predicted.

The practical working of the doctrines of the rebel leaders to the disintegration of their own government, shows that they will all go to pieces. But if the evil were to be confined to the south we would not have so much reason to regret it; but if the South succeeds in establishing its independence, and with it the principle of secession, the same evil will prevail at the north, and secession after secession will be the result, till at last the thirty-four independent military republics, all warring against each other. The way to prevent this catastrophe is to render the struggle for the Union triumphant by giving it all the moral and physical aid which it needs. New York Herald.

SECESSIONISTS IN MILWAUKEE.—There are secessionists in Milwaukee as well as in Chicago. We learn from the officers of the commissary department, that a doctor, of southern birth and slavery proclivities, visited the quarter-master's office, on Main street, the other day, and denounced the war and defended the southern traitors in regular secession style, till at last he was ordered out of the office. There are a few such citizens here who are giving aid and comfort to the rebels, and doing what they can to bring the government into contempt. They are bold, defiant, having all the assurance, impudence and haughtiness of plantation masters. They need watching.—We are not sure btu a public meeting and the appointment of a vigilance committee to look after home traitors and spies, are needed here as much as in Chicago. Without doubt they are in correspondence with the southern rebels. We must weed out traitors at home, as well as fight them on their own soil.—Daily Life.

THE RAILROAD.—The Times says that a meeting of the stockholders of the Sugar River Valley Railroad, and their friends was lately held at Albany. It was well attended, and several thousand dollars were subscribed.

☞ The military spirit is up in this city to fever heat. Recruiting is going on for six different military organizations, besides a committee for promoting the formation of a Rock county regiment is stirring up the people generally.

OFF FOR CAMP RANDALL.—Capt. Britton of the Janesville Fire Zouaves has received an order from Adj. Gen. Utley, to leave this city at noon on Tuesday. Let the people all turn out to see them off.

THE CITY ZOUAVES.—This body of young men last evening resolved to offer its services to the government during the war. Twenty-five out of twenty nine members present, enrolled their names. Immediate efforts will be made to fill up the company and attach to the regiment proposed to be raised in Rock and Green counties. A very large majority of this company, which numbers in all forty-four members, are over eighteen years of age, and the whole are active, intelligent young men.

ANOTHER ACT OF PATRIOTISM AND GOOD WILL.—Lieut. Ruger invites liberal-minded citizens to prepare such a quantity of cold provisions as they may see fit to furnish his company of Sappers and Miners with a hasty breakfast on the cars, Monday morning. They leave on the 7:10 train and they will not have time to obtain breakfast after being mustered in. Provisions may be left at the armory at the Hyatt House to-day.

Remember generously the men who are willing to fight the battles of the country.

☞ Rev. H. C. Tilton will preach in the Methodist Episcopal church to-morrow evening at the usual hour of evening service.

THE CITY SCHOOLS.—The public schools of this city will be opened next Monday.

The Rev. Wm. C. Harris, of Myresville, Vermillion county, Ill., was killed by lightning on Monday morning of last week. At the time he was walking about the room singing a hymn, when he was stricken down instantly. No marks were found upon his person except a small gash in one of his shoes. His wife was in the same room, and a large family of other persons. No one was injured but himself. He was 60 years old, and of the Methodist church.

TAXATION.—We talk of enormous taxation in this country. Britain now raises in local taxation ninety-three millions of pounds—nearly four hundred and sixty-three millions of dollars—per annum!

AT CAMP RANDALL.—The following companies are now at Camp Randall: Lodi Guards, Columbia County Cadets, Platteville Guards, Marquette County Sharpshooters, Stoughton Light Guard, Grand Rapids Union Guards and Lancaster Union Guards. The Northwestern Tigers and Grant County Badger State Guard arrive to-day, and the Beloit Rifles to-morrow, thus filling the 7th regiment.

Capt. Hastrieter's Madison Sharpshooters have left the camp and gone into Milwaukee to form part of the 9th German regiment. The captain says that he was unable to fill up here in consequence of the "secessionists" persuading Germans not to enlist in his company.—Madison Patriot.

Colonel Gowen writes from Sebastopol that he gets on slowly with the work of raising the remaining sunken Russian ships. They are so rotten that there is no portion of them strong enough to bear their own weight. The Colonel adds; "I have raised and removed some fifty vessels, a large majority vessels of war, of which there were nine war steamers and several 60 gun frigates. The harbor of Sebastopol is as practically clear this day as it was before the sinking of the fleet."

At a special meeting of Rescue Hook and Ladder Co. No. 1, held at their house on Friday evening, August 30, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, We are about to lose the chief engineer of our fire department, W. B. Britton, and several members of Hook and Ladder Company, they having enlisted in the service of their country to fight her battles and to defend her liberties and her constitution; and

WHEREAS, We, the members of said company, feel deep sympathy and interest in the success of the cause they have so nobly espoused; and holding in high estimation as we do our late foreman and chief commander, W. B. Britton, and his patriotic comrades as being endowed with courage, patriotism and moral worth, and having been associated with us as officer and private member of said fire company in the discharge of our arduous duties; therefore

Resolved, That in the departure from our midst of W. B. Britton, the fire department, and this company in particular, lose an intelligent and efficient officer and agreeable comrade, and the city of Janesville one endowed with all the qualities which go to make up the man and citizen, and that we firmly believe that the company of which he has been chosen captain, will find in our brother one who will lead them to victory and to glory.

Resolved, That in the others of our comrades who have united their fortunes with the fortunes of their country, we have the most implicit confidence in their courage, fidelity and manhood, and bespeak for them unflinching devotion to their country's cause.

Resolved, That the departure of our friends and comrades is a source of deep regret to us, alleviated only by the consideration that while we remain at home to contend in stormy battles with the fire fiend, our friends are contending with the horrid war fiend of slavery and despotism. Our loss will be our country's gain; and feeling thus, we hail their departure from us as a harbinger of good, and humbly ask that when the black battle cloud shall lower over their heads, the God of Hosts will nerve them for the conflict, and if consistent with his purposes keep them from harm.

"Onward! onward to the battle, who can doubt which side shall win?
Might and right both guide our squadrons, and the steadfast hearts within."

Resolved, That the foregoing resolutions be signed by the foreman and secretary of company, and be published in the daily papers of this city.

WM. T. PAUL, Foreman.
J. H. SANDERS, Secretary.

ENGLAND INTERESTED WITH THE NORTH.—Unless history is a record of misleading precedents, the American government will in a month be stronger for its defeats.—That it should be so must be the wish of every Englishman, for the consequences must be disastrous to human freedom.—The South in possession of Washington, and once recognized as a power would be in the best position to realize its dreams of conquest and spoliation. The army which had defeated the North, or driven it back from its soil, would overrun Mexico as easily as the first conquerors of the country. Once masters of the silver mines, and of a great taxable population, the southern leaders might in a few years organize an army which nothing on the American continent could withstand, and which would speedily bring about a new calamity—the armed interference of Europe in Central America. Such a power while unopposed, might reopen the slave trade and certainly so extend the area of slavery as to render its extinction all but impossible. The first barrier against a misfortune so terrible to the world is the strength of the American government and however annoying its failures, or however deep our disgust at its tone, it is with that government that the sympathies of all free men perforce must lie.—London News.

IMPORTANT IF TRUE.—As turpentine is contraband now, and has advanced from 30 cents to $1 25 per gallon, a substitute is wanted for mixing paint; it is now stated by those who have tried it, that the naptha, or benzole, as it is generally called, taken from the petroleum oil, is equally as good, and on some accounts better, than the turpentine, and we observe by the Pennsylvania and Ohio papers, is in general use by all painters.—Rochester Adv.

Naptha has for some months past been used by many of our painters as a substitute for turpentine. Messrs. Hervey & Bousfield, of the Boston Pail Company use it for all their ware, and its use is every day becoming more extended. The price of naptha at our coal oil refineries where it is manufactured, is we understand 35 cents per gallon. Hence all painters can see the benefit to be derived from using it.—Cleveland Herald.

A TELLING FACT WELL STATED.—In his patriotic speech at Tunknanneck, Pa., last Monday, Daniel S. Dickinson of New York, stated the case as to the origin of this war so concisely and admirably that it might be taken as the motto of all the defenders of the government. "South Carolina began to scrape lint before the votes were counted." And it is a positive historical fact.

TRINITY CHURCH.—The annual renting of slips in Trinity Church will take place on Monday, Sept. 2d, at 10½ o'clock A. M., in the church. aug23d7d

By striking out the words "equal to," and [illegible] "not exceeding," the words "in value." By striking out the following words: "But such public stocks shall [illegible] or be made to be equal to a stock producing six per cent per annum, and it shall not be lawful for the bank comptroller to take such stock at a rate above its par value, nor above its current market value in the city of New York, at the time of deposit, by such person or association of persons;" and by inserting in lieu thereof the following: "[illegible] it shall be lawful for the bank comptroller to issue for public stock which have been ranging at or above par during the last six months and up to the time of deposit in the New York market, circulating notes up to the par value of said stocks, but the comptroller shall not issue for public stocks ranging below par in said market, more circulation than ninety per cent of the current market value of said stocks at the time of deposit, nor more than ninety per cent of the average market value during the last six months; and for such stocks as may [illegible] the last six months have been at and above as well as below par, the comptroller shall not issue more than ninety per cent of the average value during the last six months nor in any event more than ninety per cent of its market value on the day of deposit, nor more than ninety per cent of the par value of such stock;" so that the said section shall hereafter read as follows: "Whenever hereafter, any person or association of persons formed for the purpose of banking under the provisions of this chapter, shall duly assign and transfer in trust to the treasurer of this state any portion of the public stocks issued or to be issued by the United States or any state, stocks on which full interest is annually paid, such person or association of persons shall be entitled to receive from the bank comptroller an amount of such circulating notes of different denominations, registered and countersigned, not exceeding in value the amount of public stocks assigned and transferred as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for the bank comptroller to issue for public stocks, which have been ranging at or above par during the last six months, and up to the time of deposit in the New York market, circulating notes up to the par value of said stocks, but the comptroller shall not issue for public stocks ranging below par in said market, more circulation than ninety per cent of the current market value of said stocks at the time of deposit, nor more than ninety per cent of the average market value during the last six months; and for such stocks as during the last six months have been at and above as well as below par, the comptroller shall not issue more than ninety per cent of the average value during the last six months, nor in any event more than ninety per cent of its market value on the day of deposit, nor more than ninety per cent of the par value of such stocks: Provided, that if in the opinion of the bank comptroller, together with the governor and the secretary of state any of the stocks [illegible] of insecure, they shall not be received as such securities under the provisions of this act; and provided further, that from and after the first day of December, 1861, the bank comptroller shall not receive as security for circulating bank notes, any other public stocks than those issued by the state of Wisconsin and the United States."

SEC. 2. Any public stocks described in the preceding section, and issued at a rate of interest less than five per cent per annum, may be received by the bank comptroller, shall be made to be equal to stock producing five per cent per annum.

SEC. 3. Section 40 of chapter 71 of the Revised Statutes, is hereby amended by inserting between the words "located" and "to" in the 19th line of said section, the words "or to the judge at chambers."

SEC. 4. Every bank and banking association now organized in this state, and all banks and banking associations that shall be organized before the 1st of day of December, 1861, except such banks and banking associations as are or may hereafter be located in the cities of Milwaukee and Madison, shall, on or before said first day of December next, appoint an agent, who shall keep an office in the city of Milwaukee or in the city of Madison, for the redemption of all circulating notes issued by such bank or banking association, which shall be presented to such agent for payment or redemption.

SEC. 5. The appointment of such agent shall be made in writing, and such written appointment shall be delivered to the bank comptroller on or before said first day of December next, who shall file the same in his office. If any bank or banking association shall neglect or refuse to appoint such agent within the time above mentioned, the bank comptroller shall appoint such agent for such bank or banking association.

SEC. 6. The bank comptroller shall, immediately after said first day of December next, during such time as he may deem advisable, publish a list of such agents in one daily newspaper published in the city of Madison, and in one daily newspaper published in the city of Milwaukee, the expense whereof shall be equally divided among the several banks or banking associations so published, and be paid by them to the comptroller on demand under penalty of forfeiture of one hundred dollars, to be collected and applied as provided in respect to the forfeiture named in section 19, chapter 71, of the Revised Statutes.

SEC. 7. Every bank or banking association hereafter organized, shall before receiving any circulating notes from the bank comptroller, appoint an agent for the purposes of this act; and such appointment shall be immediately published in the manner aforesaid, at the expense of such bank or banking association, to be credited in the manner above provided.

SEC. 8. Appointments of agents made in pursuance of this act, may be revoked and new appointments of agents made from time to time, by delivering such revocation and appointment to the bank comptroller, who shall cause the same to be published as before provided.

SEC. 9. It shall be lawful for any number of banks or banking associations, authorized by this act, to appoint an agent to associate together for raising a joint fund, to be placed in the hands of their common agent for the redemption of their circulating notes, in the city of Milwaukee or Madison, and also those circulating notes of other banks in such manner, and under such regulations as may be agreed upon and to employ such agents and clerks as they may deem necessary to carry on the business of such common agency; but nothing in this section contained shall authorize the redemption or purchase by such agency of any circulating notes at a rate of discount greater than is herein provided for, nor relieve such banks from any duty or liability required or imposed by this act.

SEC. 10. Every such bank or banking association in this state, except such banks and banking associations as now are or may hereafter be located in the cities of Milwaukee and Madison, shall redeem and pay on demand, in the lawful money of the United States, all circulating notes issued by such banks or banking associations, presented for redemption at the office of the agent of such bank or banking association, during the usual hours of business of bankers, between the hours of ten and three o'clock, at a rate of discount not exceeding three-fourths of one per cent.

SEC. 11. Every bank or banking association, whose agent shall neglect or refuse to redeem its notes on demand, as aforesaid, shall, on proof being made to the bank comptroller of such neglect or refusal, by the affidavit of the person who presented said notes for redemption or payment, and on depositing in his office the notes so presented, be subject to the same penalties, and be proceeded against in the same manner, as is now provided by law for cases where the circulating notes of any bank or banking association are protested for non-payment, unless the comptroller shall be satisfied that there is a good and legal defence against the payment of such notes.

SEC. 12. Every bank and banking association shall redeem its circulating notes as now provided by law, but in case of neglect or refusal to redeem its notes on presentation at its counter, and of protest thereof, such bank or banking association, if not located within the city of Milwaukee or the city of Madison, shall not be liable to the holder of such notes for damages. Provided, it shall within fifteen days after receiving notice from the comptroller to pay the same, to deposit said notes in the lawful money of the United States, with interest at the rate of fifteen per cent per annum; Provided that the officer or officers of such bank or banking association so neglecting or refusing to redeem its notes on demand, may endorse upon the bill or package of bills so presented, an acknowledgement of such presentation and refusal, and waiving protest upon the same; and such endorsement shall be held as evidence of the state in at the term made.

SEC. 13. No bank or banking association shall hereafter receive upon the deposit of bonds, circulating notes to an amount exceeding three times its bona fide cash capital actually paid in, and the bank comptroller is hereby authorized and required to ascertain what the actual cash capital of any bank or banking association applying for circulation, except in exchange for mutilated bills, may be and for this purpose is authorized to examine any person in relation to compel answers under oath, from any officer or stockholder of any bank or banking association so applying, or any other person.

SEC. 14. No bank or banking association shall hereafter be organized in this state, nor shall any more circulating notes be issued to any bank or banking association in this state, unless such bank or banking association shall have a bona fide cash capital of at least twenty thousand dollars actually paid in, which shall remain in such bank or banking association as its capital, and be employed in legitimate banking at the place where the bank is located, and it is hereby declared that the bonds deposited with the bank comptroller shall not be considered as any evidence of the existence of capital in any such bank or banking association, nor of the amount and extent of such capital, and it is hereby made the duty of the comptroller, before issuing any more circulating notes to any such bank or banking association, now organized, or that shall be hereafter organized, except in exchange for mutilated notes, to satisfy himself by an examination under oath of an officer or stockholder of such bank or banking association, that it has fully complied with the provisions of this section of the next preceding section of this act, and for the purpose of such examination the comptroller, or his assistant, the deputy comptroller, is hereby authorized to administer oaths; Provided, that nothing in this section contained shall prevent any bank or banking association from issuing notes to any greater amount than its nominal capital.

SEC. 15. From and after the first day of December next it shall not be lawful for any banker, bank or banking association, banker, broker, company or corporation, to circulate or attempt to circulate, or to pay out or receive any bill, note or other evidence of debt, [illegible] purporting to have been issued by any banker or bank out of this state, unless such bank shall [illegible] the redeem[illegible] the same at par or [illegible] in the city of New York or at some other place within the United States, at a rate of discount not exceeding three-fourths of one per cent; and any person, bank [illegible] comptroller is to be [illegible] of [illegible] and every [illegible] in [illegible] by [illegible] or [illegible] for each and every offence the sum of one hundred dollars, to be recovered with costs of suit in the name [illegible] and for the [illegible] any person who shall sue [illegible] and prosecute such suit to judgment in any court having [illegible].

SEC. 16. Each and every person owning or holding stock in any bank or banking association who shall assign his stock or any portion thereof in any such bank or banking association, shall be held liable for the term of six months from and after such assignment, transfer or assignment as aforesaid, personally liable to the amount of stock so transferred or assigned as aforesaid, for the payment of all the debts and liabilities of such bank or banking association, existing at the time of such sale, transfer or assignment.

SEC. 17. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the first day of December, eighteen hundred and sixty-one.

SEC. 18. All acts or parts of acts conflicting, with or in any way contravening the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

SEC. 19. At the general election to be held on the Tuesday next succeeding the first Monday in November, in the year 1861, at all the usual places of holding elections in this state for the election of all officers required by law then to be elected, the question whether this act shall become a law and be in effect, or in any manner be in force, shall be submitted to the people, and if it shall be approved by a majority of all the votes cast on the subject, it shall continue in effect; otherwise it shall not go into effect, nor continue in force.

SEC. 20. The votes cast on the subject specified in the last preceding section shall be by separate ballot, and shall have written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, on each of them, the words: "For Amendments to the Banking Law;" or "Against Amendments to the Banking Law," which words shall indicate the vote for or against the approval of this act; and the ballots so cast shall be canvassed and returned in the same manner as the votes cast for state officers are required by law to be canvassed, and the secretary of state shall immediately, on the completion of said canvass, publish a statement of the result thereof in the official state paper, and shall communicate the same to the next legislature at the commencement of their session, and he shall also deliver to the state a certified copy thereof, with a statement of the result of the canvass upon the subject immediately after the completion of the canvass."

☞ The military spirit is up in this city to fever heat. Recruiting is going on for six different military organizations, besides a committee for promoting the formation of a Rock county regiment is stirring up the people generally.

OFF FOR CAMP RANDALL.—Capt. Britton of the Janesville Fire Zouaves has received an order from Adj. Gen. Utley, to leave this city at noon on Tuesday. Let the people all turn out to see them off.

THE CITY ZOUAVES.—This body of young men last evening resolved to offer its services to the government during the war. Twenty-five out of twenty nine members present, enrolled their names. Immediate efforts will be made to fill up the company and attach to the regiment proposed to be raised in Rock and Green counties. A very large majority of this company, which numbers in all forty-four members, are over eighteen years of age, and the whole are active, intelligent young men.

ANOTHER ACT OF PATRIOTISM AND GOOD WILL.—Lieut. Ruger invites liberal-minded citizens to prepare such a quantity of cold provisions as they may see fit to furnish his company of Sappers and Miners with a hasty breakfast on the cars, Monday morning. They leave on the 7:10 train and they will not have time to obtain breakfast after being mustered in. Provisions may be left at the armory at the Hyatt House to-day.

Remember generously the men who are willing to fight the battles of the country.

☞ Rev. H. C. Tilton will preach in the Methodist Episcopal church to-morrow evening at the usual hour of evening service.

THE CITY SCHOOLS.—The public schools of this city will be opened next Monday.

The Rev. Wm. C. Harris, of Myresville, Vermillion county, Ill., was killed by lightning on Monday morning of last week. At the time he was walking about the room singing a hymn, when he was stricken down instantly. No marks were found upon his person except a small gash in one of his shoes. His wife was in the same room, and a large family of other persons. No one was injured but himself. He was 60 years old, and of the Methodist church.

TAXATION.—We talk of enormous taxation in this country. Britain now raises in local taxation ninety-three millions of pounds—nearly four hundred and sixty-three millions of dollars—per annum!

AT CAMP RANDALL.—The following companies are now at Camp Randall: Lodi Guards, Columbia County Cadets, Platteville Guards, Marquette County Sharpshooters, Stoughton Light Guard, Grand Rapids Union Guards and Lancaster Union Guards. The Northwestern Tigers and Grant County Badger State Guard arrive to-day, and the Beloit Rifles to-morrow, thus filling the 7th regiment.

Capt. Hastrieter's Madison Sharpshooters have left the camp and gone into Milwaukee to form part of the 9th German regiment. The captain says that he was unable to fill up here in consequence of the "secessionists" persuading Germans not to enlist in his company.—Madison Patriot.

Colonel Gowen writes from Sebastopol that he gets on slowly with the work of raising the remaining sunken Russian ships. They are so rotten that there is no portion of them strong enough to bear their own weight. The Colonel adds; "I have raised and removed some fifty vessels, a large majority vessels of war, of which there were nine war steamers and several 60 gun frigates. The harbor of Sebastopol is as practically clear this day as it was before the sinking of the fleet."

At a special meeting of Rescue Hook and Ladder Co. No. 1, held at their house on Friday evening, August 30, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, We are about to lose the chief engineer of our fire department, W. B. Britton, and several members of Hook and Ladder Company, they having enlisted in the service of their country to fight her battles and to defend her liberties and her constitution; and

WHEREAS, We, the members of said company, feel deep sympathy and interest in the success of the cause they have so nobly espoused; and holding in high estimation as we do our late foreman and chief commander, W. B. Britton, and his patriotic comrades as being endowed with courage, patriotism and moral worth, and having been associated with us as officer and private member of said fire company in the discharge of our arduous duties; therefore

Resolved, That in the departure from our midst of W. B. Britton, the fire department, and this company in particular, lose an intelligent and efficient officer and agreeable comrade, and the city of Janesville one endowed with all the qualities which go to make up the man and citizen, and that we firmly believe that the company of which he has been chosen captain, will find in our brother one who will lead them to victory and to glory.

Resolved, That in the others of our comrades who have united their fortunes with the fortunes of their country, we have the most implicit confidence in their courage, fidelity and manhood, and bespeak for them unflinching devotion to their country's cause.

Resolved, That the departure of our friends and comrades is a source of deep regret to us, alleviated only by the consideration that while we remain at home to contend in stormy battles with the fire fiend, our friends are contending with the horrid war fiend of slavery and despotism. Our loss will be our country's gain; and feeling thus, we hail their departure from us as a harbinger of good, and humbly ask that when the black battle cloud shall lower over their heads, the God of Hosts will nerve them for the conflict, and if consistent with his purposes keep them from harm.

"Onward! onward to the battle, who can doubt which side shall win?
Might and right both guide our squadrons, and the steadfast hearts within."

Resolved, That the foregoing resolutions be signed by the foreman and secretary of company, and be published in the daily papers of this city.

WM. T. PAUL, Foreman.
J. H. SANDERS, Secretary.

ENGLAND INTERESTED WITH THE NORTH.—Unless history is a record of misleading precedents, the American government will in a month be stronger for its defeats.—That it should be so must be the wish of every Englishman, for the consequences must be disastrous to human freedom.—The South in posession of Washington, and once recognized as a power would be in the best position to realize its dreams of conquest and spoliation. The army which had defeated the North, or driven it back from its soil, would overrun Mexico as easily as the first conquerors of the country. Once masters of the silver mines, and of a great taxable population, the southern leaders might in a few years organize an army which nothing on the American continent could withstand, and which would speedily bring about a new calamity—the armed interference of Europe in Central America. Such a power while unopposed, might reopen the slave trade and certainly so extend the area of slavery as to render its extinction all but impossible. The first barrier against a misfortune so terrible to the world is the strength of the American government and however annoying its failures, or however deep our disgust at its tone, it is with that government that the sympathies of all free men perforce must lie.—London News.

IMPORTANT IF TRUE.—As turpentine is contraband now, and has advanced from 30 cents to $1 25 per gallon, a substitute is wanted for mixing paint; it is now stated by those who have tried it, that the naptha, or benzole, as it is generally called, taken from the petroleum oil, is equally as good, and on some accounts better, than the turpentine, and we observe by the Pennsylvania and Ohio papers, is in general use by all painters.—Rochester Adv.

Naptha has for some months past been used by many of our painters as a substitute for turpentine. Messrs, Hervey & Bousfield, of the Boston Pail Company use it for all their ware, and its use is every day becoming more extended. The price of naptha at our coal oil refineries where it is manufactured, is we understand 35 cents per gallon. Hence all painters can see the benefit to be derived from using it.—Cleveland Herald.

A TELLING FACT WELL STATED.—In his patriotic speech at Tunknanneck, Pa., last Monday, Daniel S. Dickinson of New York, stated the case as to the origin of this war so concisely and admirably that it might be taken as the motto of all the defenders of the government. "South Carolina began to scrape lint before the votes were counted." And it is a positive historical fact.

TRINITY CHURCH.—The annual renting of slips in Trinity Church will take place on Monday, Sept. 2d, at 10½ o'clock A. M., in the church. aug23d7d

CHAPTER 242.

AS AMENDED BY CHAPTER 1, EXTRA SESSION.

AN ACT to amend the General Banking Law, and the several acts amendatory thereof.

The People of the State of Wisconsin represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22 of chapter 71 of the Revised Statutes, with the thereunto belonging amendment, (see chapter 98 of the general laws of 1858,) is hereby amended as follows: by striking out the following words: "Said stocks to be valued at a rate to be estimated and governed by the average rate at which said stocks have been sold in the city of New York, within the next six months preceding the time when such stocks may be left on deposite with the comptroller." By striking out the words "equal to," and inserting after the words "not exceeding," the words "in value." By striking out the following words: "But such public stocks shall in all cases be, or be made to be equal to a stock producing six per cent per annum; and it shall not be lawful for the bank comptroller to take such stock at a rate above its par value, nor above its current market value in the city of New York at the time of deposite, by such person or association of persons;" and by inserting in lieu thereof the following: "and it shall be lawful for the bank comptroller to issue for public stock which have been ranging at or above par during the last six months, and up to the time of deposite in the New York market, circulating notes up to the par value of said stocks; but the comptroller shall not issue for public stocks ranging below par in said market, more circulation than ninety per cent of the current market value of said stocks at the time of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the average market value during the last six months; and for such stocks as during the last six months have been at and above as well as below par, the comptroller shall not issue more than ninety per cent of the average value during the last six months, nor in any event more than ninety per cent of its market value on the day of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the par value of such stocks;" so that the said section shall henceforth read as follows: "Whenever, hereafter, any person or association of persons, formed for the purpose of banking under the provisions of this chapter, shall duly assign and transfer in trust to the treasurer of this state, any portion of the public stocks issued or to be issued by the United States or any state stocks, on which full interest is annually paid, such person or association of persons shall be entitled to receive from the bank comptroller an amount of such circulating notes of different denominations, registered and countersigned, and not exceeding in value the amount of public stocks assigned and tranferred as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for the bank comptroller to issue for public stocks, which have been ranging at or above par during the last six months, and up to the time of deposite in the New York market, circulating notes up to the par value of said stocks, but the comptroller shall not issue for public stocks ranging below par in said market, more circulation than ninety per cent of the current market value of said stocks at the time of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the average market value during the last six months; and for such stocks as during the last six months have been at and above as well as below par, the comptroller shall not issue more than ninety per cent of the average value during the last six months, nor in any event more than ninety per cent of its market value on the day of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the par value of such stocks: Provided, that if in the opinion of the bank comptroller, together with the governor and the secretary of state any stocks offered shall be deemed insecure, they shall not be received as such securities under the provisions of this act; and provided, further, that from and after the first day of December, 1861, the bank comptroller shall not receive as security for circulating bank notes, any other public stocks than those issued by the state of Wisconsin and the United States.

SEC. 7. Every bank or banking association hereafter organized, shall before receiving any circulating notes from the bank comptroller, appoint an agent for the purposes of this act; and such appointment shall be immediately published in the manner aforesaid, at the expense of such bank or banking association, to be collected in the manner above provided.

SEC. 8. Appointments of agents made in pursuance of this act, may be revoked and new appointments of agents made from time to time, by delivering such revocation and appointment to the bank comptroller, who shall cause the same to be published as before provided.

SEC. 9. It shall be lawful for any number of banks or banking associations, authorized by this act, to appoint an agent to associate together for raising a joint fund, to be placed in the hands of their common agent for the redemption of their circulating notes, in the city of Milwaukee or Madison, and also the circulating notes of other banks in such manner, and under such regulations as may be agreed upon, and to employ such agents and clerks as they may deem necessary to carry on the business of such common agency; but nothing in this section contained shall authorize the redemption or purchase by such agency of any circulating notes at a rate of discount greater than is herein provided for, nor relieve such banks from any duty or liability required or imposed by this act.

SEC. 10. Every such bank or banking association in this state, except such banks and banking associations as now are or may hereafter be located in the cities of Milwaukee and Madison, shall redeem and pay on demand, in the lawful money of the United States, all circulating notes issued by such banks or banking associations, presented for redemption at the office of the agent of such bank or banking association, during the usual hours of business of bankers, between the hours of ten and three o'clock, at a rate of discount not exceeding three-fourths of one per cent.

SEC. 11. Every bank or banking association, whose agent shall neglect or refuse to redeem its notes on demand, as aforesaid, shall, on proof being made to the bank comptroller of such neglect or refusal, by the affidavit of the person who presented said notes for redemption or payment, and on depositing in his office the notes so presented, be subject to the same penalties, and be proceeded against in the same manner, as is now provided by law for cases where the circulating notes of any bank or banking association are protested for non-payment, unless the comptroller shall be satisfied that there is a good and legal defence against the payment of such notes.

SEC. 12. Every bank and banking association shall redeem its circulating notes as now provided by law, but in case of neglect or refusal to redeem its notes on presentation at its counter, and of protest therefor, such bank or banking association, if not located within the city of Milwaukee or the city of Madison, shall not be liable to the holder of such notes for damages: Provided, it shall within fifteen days after receiving notice from the comptroller to pay the same, redeem said notes in the lawful money of the United States, with interest at the rate of fifteen per cent per annum; Provided, that the officer or officers of such bank or banking association so neglecting or refusing to redeem its notes on demand, may endorse upon the bills or package of bills so presented, an acknowledgement of such presentation and refusal, and waiving protest upon the same; and such endorsement shall be held as evidence of the statement therein made.

SEC. 13. No bank or banking association shall hereafter receive upon the deposite of bonds, circulating notes to an amount exceeding three times its bona fide cash capital actually paid in, and the bank comptroller is hereby authorized and required to ascertain what the actual cash capital of any bank or banking association applying for circulation, except in exchange for mutilated bills, may be, and for this purpose he is authorized to examine any person on oath, and to compel answers under oath, from any officer or stockholder of any bank or banking association so applying, or any other person.

SEC. 14. No bank or banking association shall hereafter be organized in this state, nor shall any more circulating notes be issued to any bank or banking association in this state, unless said bank or banking association shall have a bona fide cash capital of at least fifteen thousand dollars actually paid in, which shall remain in such bank or banking association as capital, and employed in legitimate banking at the place where the bank is located; and it is hereby declared that the bonds deposited with the bank comptroller shall not be considered as any evidence of the existence of capital in any such bank or banking association, nor of the amount and extent of such capital; and it is hereby made the duty of the comptroller, before issuing any more circulating notes to any such bank or banking association now organized, or that shall be hereafter organized, except in exchange for mutilated notes, to satisfy himself by an examination under oath of an officer or stockholder of such bank or banking association that it has fully complied with the provisions of this section, and of the next preceding section of this act, and for the purposes of such examination the comptroller, or in the absence the deputy comptroller, is hereby authorized to administer oaths; Provided, that nothing in this act contained shall be so construed as to permit any bank to issue circulating notes to any greater amount than its nominal capital.

SEC. 15. From and after the first day of December next it shall not be lawful for any bank or banking association, banker, broker, company or corporation, to circulate or attempt to circulate, or to pay out as money, any bill, note or other evidence of debt, issued or purporting to have been issued by any bank, banking association, company, corporation or individual located or residing out of this state, unless said bill, or note or evidence of debt shall, for the last six months preceding such circulating or paying out, have been redeemable in the city of New York or Boston in current money of the United States, at a rate of discount not exceeding three fourths of one per cent; and the decision of the bank comptroller as to the rate of such discount shall be final and conclusive. Every bank or banking association, banker or broker, corporation or company, offending against the provisions of this section shall forfeit for each and every offense the sum of one hundred dollars, to be recovered with costs of suit in the name and for the use of any person who shall sue for the same and prosecute such suit to judgment in any court having cognizance thereof.

SEC. 16. Each and every person owning or holding stock in any bank or banking association, who shall sell, transfer or assign his stock or any portion thereof, in any such bank or banking association, shall be held, and remain for the term of six months from and after such sale, transfer or assignment, as aforesaid, personally liable to the amount of stock so as afore said sold, transferred or assigned by him for the payment of all the debts and liabilities of such bank or banking association, existing at the time of such sale, transfer or assignment.

SEC. 17. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the first day of December, eighteen hundred and sixty-one.

SEC. 18. All acts or parts of acts conflicting with, or in any way contravening the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

SEC. 19. At the general election to be held on the Tuesday next succeeding the first Monday in November, in the year 1861, at all the usual places of holding elections in this state, for the election of all officers required by law then to be elected, the question whether this act shall become a law and go into effect, or in any manner be in force, shall be submitted to the people, and if the same shall be approved by a majority of all the votes cast on the subject, it shall go into effect; otherwise, it shall not go into effect nor be in force.

SEC. 20. The votes cast on the subject specified in the last preceding section shall be by separate ballot, and shall have written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, on each of them, the words: "For Amendments to the Banking Law;" or "Against Amendments to the Banking Law," which words shall indicate the vote for or against the approval of this act; and the ballots so cast shall be canvassed and returned in the same manner as the votes cast for state officers are required by law to be canvassed, and the secretary of state shall immediately, on the completion of said canvass, publish a statement of the result thereof in the official state paper, and shall communicate the same to the next legislature at the commencement of the session, and he shall also deliver to the state treasurer a certified copy thereof, with a statement of the result of the canvass upon the subject immediately after the completion of the canvass.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in "times of panic," as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep on hand above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,

By the use of these pills the periodic attacks of Nervous or Sick Headache may be prevented; and if taken at the commencement of an attack immediate relief from pain and sickness will be obtained.

They seldom fail in removing Nausea and Headache to which females are so subject.

They act gently upon the bowels,—removing Costiveness.

For Literary Men, Students, delicate females, and all persons of sedentary habits, they are valuable as a Laxative, improving the appetite, giving tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and restoring the natural elasticity and strength of the whole system.

The CEPHALIC PILLS are the result of long investigation and carefully conducted experiments, having been in use many years, during which time they have prevented and relieved a vast amount of pain and suffering from headache, whether originating in the nervous system or from a deranged state of the stomach.

They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and may be taken at all times with perfect safety without making any change of diet, and the absence of any disagreeable taste renders it easy to administer them to children.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an Indemnity to the insured, it refers to a half million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,

CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,000,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

GREAT INDUCEMENTS OFFERED FOR Getting up Clubs.

DAILY GAZETTE.

HEAR THE OTHER SIDE—SECRETARY CAMERON.—The Washington correspondent of the Chicago Journal—a paper that has not been sparing of sharp comments on the inefficiency, if not something worse, of the war department—writes:

"And here let me say a word about Secretary Cameron. Reports are as rife here as elsewhere, of his trickery in the management of government; and I had reluctantly come to the conclusion—so common and uncontradictory were the reports—that there must be some truth in them. But I have good authority for saying they are "baseless as the fabric of a vision." My authority is no less a person than Senator Wilson of Massachusetts. He is chairman of the military committee of congress, and his official position brings him into confidential intercourse with the secretary of war, and he is necessarily made acquainted with the war department. He entered upon his official duty as chairman of the military committee, with some of the prejudice against the secretary which exists in the public mind. He was therefore, inclined closely to scrutinize his conduct; and the result of Gen. Wilson's intercourse with, and the scrutiny of the war department, has led him to the conclusion that the charges made so flippantly and so confidently against Gen. Cameron, are without foundation; that he had not made one cent out of any contract with the department. I heard Gen. Wilson declare this in conversation; and not only did he say this, but he further emphatically declared that he believed these reports originated with those who wanted, but have been unable to sell the government, at enormous prices, vessels worthless for war service, or to "line their pockets" with fat contracts for the army. He added, further, that Gen. Cameron is conducting the war department with great energy and efficiency.

I have also unquestionable authority for saying that Secretary Chase, whose [illegible] keenness in scenting out everything which smacks of fraud in the conduct of the government is proverbial, concurs in Gen. Wilson's opinion of Secretary Cameron."

A VALUABLE REFORM.—Gen. Fremont is a practical, working man, all industry and energy. The St. Louis army correspondent of the Cincinnati Times tells us of an improvement in the quartermaster's department under Fremont which is worthy of the attention of the war department elsewhere. He don't ask the [illegible] and has no friend to reward but his [illegible]. Consequently all clothing, haversacks, [illegible] drawers, &c., are made by government establishments, which have suddenly sprung into existence, and are attached to the quartermaster's department. I visited two of these establishments recently, in which nearly one thousand females are employed. Preference is given to the wives and daughters of the volunteers, and no one tainted in the least with secession is employed. A sewing woman receives $3 a week, a woman and sewing machine $5 a week. They are paid weekly in gold. Hundreds of families have been saved from distress by this movement—many, perhaps, from starvation. The establishments have been long enough in operation to permit a fair comparison between the present and the old system of furnishing the army. Although the employees are better paid than they would be by contractors, [illegible] a saving to the government of forty per cent.

I commend this reform to the war department. It should be effected in every division of the army. It would save much suffering in our large cities, and thousands who are now growing wealthy by cheating the government in the manufacture of clothing, &c., would become invisible.

CURE FOR THE TOOTHACHE.—An exchange gives the following:—"My dear friend said [illegible] "I can cure your toothache in ten minutes." "How—how?" I inquired; "do it in pity." "Instantly," said he. "Have you any alum?" "Yes." "Bring it, and some common salt." They were produced. My friend pulverized them, mixed them in equal quantities, then wet a small piece of cotton causing the powder to adhere to it, placed it in my hollow tooth. "There," said he, "If that does not cure you I will forfeit my head. You may tell this to every one, and publish it everywhere. The remedy is infallible." It was as he predicted. On the introduction of the mixed alum and salt, I experienced a sensation of coldness, and with it—the alum and salt—I cured the torment of the toothache.

WAUKESHA SENATOR.—Joseph Bond, of Mukwonago, declines the democratic nomination for senator, in Waukesha county.—Mr. Bond's reasons we presume are, an unwillingness to recognize any partizan action in existing emergencies. The convention voted down almost unanimously a proposition introduced by Mr. Emore repudiating partizanship. Mr. Bond is an excellent man and would well represent the county. Mr. Hodgson, represented to be a very fit man, is nominated by the republicans for the place.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

CAN'T STAND THE DISGRACE.—We learn that several of the resigned officers in this vicinity, unable to bear the scorn of their fellow citizens, who look upon them with disparagement on account of their ignominious course, express their determination to return to duty, and rather than not take a part in the effort now making to preserve their country intact, to shoulder their musket and fight in the ranks. This is a praiseworthy resolution, and will meet with the cordial approbation of all true patriots.—Utica (N. Y.) Telegraph.

THE SECRET OF HIS SECESSION.—A gentleman in the city is well acquainted with Mr. Converse, the editor of the Christian Observer in Philadelphia, which was recently suppressed, and says he is an easy, good-natured old soul, and used to be a Methodist preacher, but has been editing some seven or eight years. The secret of his secession tendencies lies in the fact that he owns a plantation and several negroes down in Virginia, and he fears they may be confiscated by the south. His plantation outweighs his patriotism.

WHAT A NORTHERN REBEL THOUGHT.—In the last number of the Stark County Democrat, previous to its "cleaning out," the editor proclaimed the president's war measures unconstitutional, and said that states and individuals were not only not bound to obey their requirements, but that "resistance rather is the part of duty," and that the president ought to be impeached. The people of Stark county indicated their view of the matter by demolishing the traitor's office.

TESTIMONIAL. To Whom it May Concern:

I AM now over 60 years of age. Three years since I became blind from Cataract in both eyes. Soon after I became blind an attempt to restore my sight by an operation was made in this city, which was unsuccessful. Hearing of the reputation of Dr. Folsom, as a skillful oculist, I was induced to consult him, though with very little hopes of relief. The doctor proposed an operation, to which I consented, which resulted in almost Perfect Restoration of sight to one eye. He afterwards performed an operation on the other eye with success. I am now enjoying the inestimable blessing of good vision, and a much better general state of health than before. THOS. VAUGHN.

Republican State Convention.

A Republican State Convention will be held at the Capital, in the city of Madison, at 12 o'clock M., on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of September next, for the purpose of nominating candidates for state officers.

Each assembly district, under the new apportionment, will be entitled to two delegates in the convention.

The committee recommend that the primary meetings for the selection of delegates be held on or before the 14th day of September, and that the district committees issue early calls for such meetings, that the people may be thoroughly notified, and choose delegates who fairly reflect their wishes.

HORACE RUBLEE,
Chairman State Republican Central Com.
Madison, August 12, 1861.

The Right Course at Last.

Gen. Fremont has declared martial law throughout the state of Missouri. He also proclaims that every man found in arms against the government north of the line of military occupation, extending from Fort Leavenworth to Cape Girardeau, SHALL BE SHOT; that the property, real and personal, of all persons in the state of Missouri who shall have taken up arms against the United States, or who shall be directly proven to have taken part with their enemies in the field, is DECLARED CONFISCATED, and their SLAVES, if any they have, are declared FREE MEN.

The right course to put down the rebellion has at last been adopted. All honor to the MAN who has had the nerve and the will to do his whole duty. The country will sustain him, the west will pour out her men and money without stint. Hurrah for Fremont and the army of the west! Let us make ready, and when the first frost spreads over the fields of the south, let it witness an army of one hundred thousand men, fully prepared to march under the banner of the Pathfinder, down the great valley to the mouth of the Mississippi.—Then let the word be—ONWARD TO NEW ORLEANS.

The Way to do It.

The way in which the committee appointed at the war meeting last evening have gone to work indicates that they mean to do their duty in the most prompt and efficient manner, and we shall be disappointed if their labors do not result in the immediate raising of a regiment for the war in this county and Green. The meeting itself was animated with more spirit and determined zeal than any we have ever before attended even in the most hotly contested election times, and we should expect that the committee, which was judiciously chosen, would partake of the same animation. It is even so. Each member of the committee is a working man in the best sense of the term, and we hope their efforts will be most heartily seconded by the people throughout the counties in which they are to operate. The crisis certainly calls for earnestness, for activity, for patriotic devotion to our country's cause. The people feel the importance of this crisis and are determined to act accordingly.

The Right Spirit.

At the meeting last night the right spirit was manifested. If there was any fear on the part of any one that controverted subjects would be introduced, the proceedings of the first and this adjourned meeting have effectually dispelled them. The single and permanent object of sustaining the government was alone entertained, and the plan of operations reported by the committee met the approbation of all. It is to be hoped that a similar spirit will animate the people of the whole region in which the proposed regiment is to be raised, and the work necessary to raise it will be at once commenced and no effort remitted until the object is accomplished. The work is large, but it can be effected, and most unquestionably ought to be. Activity and unanimity is the duty of all.

NOT APPOINTED.—The Madison Journal says—The report, so prevalent here that we supposed there was no question about it, that Lieut. Col. Harris had been appointed colonel of the second regiment proves incorrect. On inquiry at the capitol, we find that Col. O'Connor's resignation had not yet been received there."

REBEL SYMPATHISERS WATCHED.—Already, through the activity of the Provost Marshall, General Porter's department, the lines of communication with the rebels from their agents here are almost entirely broken up. Intercepted correspondence shows how little they know of the real state of things in and about Washington, and how their camps are filled with conflicting rumors in place of the trustwortny intelligence they formerly had of our movements.—Women who have had so much to do with conveying surreptitious intelligence are narrowly watched—and I may add that there is not a family of rebel sympathisers in the city but is under the surveillance of the Government.

The Pope is rapidly failing in health.—The Milan Perseveranza has a letter from Rome, which says: "The Pope is ill. He has not only the chronic affection of the legs, which are swollen and covered with large sores, but he has a disease of the heart which may carry him off at any moment.—Dr. Carpi gives it as his opinion that he cannot live for three months."

Adjourned War Meeting.

The adjourned war meeting last evening was called to order by the President, I. C. Sloan. The other officers were E. A. Howland and James Neil vice presidents; Chas. Holt and Joseph Baker secretaries.

Rev. H. C. Tilton, as secretary of the committee to report a plan of organization, submitted the following report:

The committee appointed "to report a plan by which the resources of Rock county, in men and means, shall be made effective in the present crisis of our country," having attended to their duties, offer the following report:

FIRST.—We recommend that immediate, earnest and systematic efforts be made to raise a regiment for the war in Rock and Green counties.

SECOND.—That measures be immediately adopted to secure the encampment of said regiment in this city, until called into the active service of the government.

To accomplish these purposes we further recommend the adoption of the following

PLAN OF ACTION.

FIRST.—That a committee of three be appointed by the president of this meeting, to be known as the Central Military Committee of Rock County, whose duties shall be—

1st. To provide for a thorough canvassing of the county, inviting the people of each town to appoint three of its citizens to aid the central committee in enrolling companies, and otherwise to assist them in raising the regiment in the shortest time possible.

2d. To co-operate with the state military authorities, recruiting officers, the citizens generally, and otherwise aid in raising and perfecting the organization and equipment of the regiment.

3d. To take immediate measures to secure the co-operation of Green county to the movement.

SECOND.—We further recommend that the board of county supervisors be respectfully and earnestly requested to adopt such legal measures as may be necessary for the support of the families of those who may enlist in their country's service.

THIRD.—That a committee of three be appointed to collect funds to defray the incidental expenses, and provide, in case of necessity, for the board of those who enlist until mustered into the service; which fund shall be paid to and be disbursed by the central committee.

Your committee are authorized to say that all companies of forty or more may be mustered into the service of the state, and boarded at the state's expense, at not more than thirty cents a day per man; also that all companies of eighty or more may be mustered into the United States service.

Your committee have the pleasure of informing the citizens further, that they have had, through two of their own number, personal interviews with Gov. Randall, and received his cordial approval of these measures, and his assurance of prompt official support of the same.

To facilitate the encampment of the regiment in this city, the Governor proposes to furnish the tents and camp equipage necessary to actual service in ten days from this date.

The Governor further assures your committee that he will respect the wishes of the companies of the regiment in the appointment of its field officers, provided the persons proposed are fully competent and temperate men.

If the achievement of our national independence was worthy of the lives and fortunes of our fathers, the maintenance of that independence is worthy of the blood and treasure of their children. Our only aim should be the re-establishment of national authority on every inch of ground in this Union—the unfurling of the national flag on every state and court house, and every fort or arsenal from which it has or will be stricken by the hand of treason—to transmit to our children this blood-bought legacy of our heroic sires, undivided and indivisible—to give to mankind the final demonstration of the power of Americans to govern themselves—that in due time this Heaven-favored land may become the asylum of the oppressed and not the home of the slave.

Respectfully submitted,
H. N. COMSTOCK,
EDWARD McKEY,
H. RICHARDSON,
S. C. SPAULDING,
H. C. TILTON,
Committee.

The report was unanimously adopted.

The chairman appointed as the central military committee recommended in the plan of organization, J. J. R. Pease, H. Richardson and H. W. Collins.

On motion, the president and vice presidents of the meeting were authorized to fill any vacancy which might occur in the committee.

Mr. Holt offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the central military committee, appointed by this meeting, be instructed to confer with the citizens of the city of Beloit and make such special arrangements with them as will promote the objects of their appointment.

Mayor Parker, of Beloit, being present and invited to speak, assured the meeting of the hearty co-operation of the citizens of Beloit.

The resolution was then unanimously adopted.

The president appointed S. C. Burnham, C. H. Conrad and S. J. M. Putnam the committee to collect funds to meet the incidental expenses incurred in organizing the regiment.

On motion, the president and vice presidents were empowered to fill any vacancies in the committee.

Messrs. Neil and J. R. Bennett spoke in deprecation of efforts now making to enlist citizens of Wisconsin in Illinois volunteer regiments, and contended that it was due to Wisconsin that the state should have the credit of the services of her own citizens, and her citizens the benefit of the extra appropriations made by the state, which to married men is $5 per month, and which would be lost by enlisting out of the state.

Sergeant Vallee, who returned with the first regiment, was introduced to the meeting, and stated that he was raising an artillery company to be composed of one hundred and forty men and five pieces of artillery.

Messrs. Tilton and Comstock addressed the meeting in some general remarks, and the meeting then adjourned.

THE KENTUCKY LEGISLATURE.—We learn from the Frankfort Commonwealth that the returns are all in, and show that the Union party have seventy-six members of the house of representatives, counting Lindsey, of Carroll, who is claimed by both parties. At any rate, the Union party will have a majority of fifty in the house—just half the members. The senate will stand twenty-seven Union to eleven secessionist. Ten of the secessionists hold over, which accounts for having so many of them in this legislature.

Last Night's Report.

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 30.

The funeral of Sergeant Graham, of the 1st Wisconsin Regiment, was very solemn and imposing and very generally attended by the citizens and soldiers of the city. The body was escorted to the church and cemetery by all of the members of the 1st regiment who were in the city, dressed in their old uniforms, the home guard and a large body of typos, editors, and members of the chamber of commerce, preceded by a band of music. The coffin was enveloped in the folds of the old regimental flag, over which was laid the uniform of the deceased. The solemn dirge of the band, tolling of bells, flags draped, and the immense concourse of people presented a grand but solemn scene. The services at the church and cemetery were very impressive. Both friends and strangers seemed overcome with grief, and many a tear was dropped for the brave volunteer.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 30.

The Baltimore American has reliable information regarding Gen. Rosencrans' division up to the afternoon of the 27th inst. Gen. Rosencrans was not only active and well, but was quietly transacting his functions at his headquarters. Various accounts are given of the forces of Generals Lee, Wise and Floyd, but no accurate information seems to be possessed out of Rosencrans' staff. Opinions differ very much among military men and others in Western Virginia as to the probabilities of anything like a general engagement between the respective armies in that quarter. Confidence is reposed in the ability of Gen. Rosencrans to maintain himself against any forces likely to attack him. He has excellent aids and officers to support him, who have doubtless helped him in providing an effective army.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.

Special to Post.—There are no exciting rumors to-day from the other side of the Potomac. The enemy's movements are believed to be intended to draw our troops out of their entrenchments in small detachments. There is no indication of any attack on any part of our lines.

A new army order to suppress the publication of all objectionable newspapers will be issued, and under its provisions General Dix will take measures against the secession journals in Baltimore.

Apprehensions are being felt that the branch of the state bank at that place would be robbed. The cashier yesterday sent the specie, amounting to about $150,000, to Allen depot on North Missouri Railroad for transportation to St. Louis. Before reaching Allen the money was seized by a party of twenty secessionists headed by Captain Poindexter and carried off. Whether it will be recovered is not known, some saying that Poindexter has been induced to return it to the bank, while others assert that he will attempt to cross the Missouri river and carry it to General Price's army in the southwest.

CAIRO Aug. 30.

A flag of truce from New Madrid arrived in camp at Bird's Point this p. m. The object was exchanging prisoners. It is reported the rebels under Jeff Thompson and Hardee are falling back on New Madrid.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.

Official despatches from East Indies state that the flag officer has received an order of the navy department for the immediate return of the squadron to the United States. One ship will however be left there, and also on the coast of Africa and Brazil, after the squadron shall have been withdrawn for blockading purposes.

The Governor of Juan Fernando has been authorized by the Spanish government to receive in that island a number of slaves who may be captured by vessels of the United States, that being free they may acquire the benefits of civillization.

Flag officer Inman has communicated this proposition to our government.

It appears from the African squadron that the secessionists have been sending circulars to naval officers of southern birth holding out inducements to leave the United States service and join that of the disunionists with equal rank.

The government employees had received one-sixth of their present month's salaries in treasury notes, and the rest in specie.—Private parties are exhibiting to prominent officials and offering to supply the army with the Prussian needle guns.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 30.

The following very important proclamation by Gen. Fremont will be in the morning papers:

PROCLAMATION.

HEADQUARTERS WEST'N DEP'T.
St. Louis, Aug. 30, 1861.

Circumstances, in my judgment, of sufficient urgency, render it necessary that the commanding general of this department should assume the administrative powers of the state. Its disorganized condition and helplessness of the civil authority, the total insecurity of life, and the devastation of property by bands of murderers and marauders, who infest nearly every county in the state, and avail themselves of the public misfortunes and the vicinity of a hostile force to gratify private and neighborhood vengeance, and who find an enemy wherever they find plunder, finally demand the severest measures to repress the daily increasing crimes and outrages which are driving off the inhabitants and ruining the state. In this condition the public safety and success of arms require unity of purpose without let or hindrance to the prompt administration of affairs.

In order, therefore, to suppress disorders, to maintain as far as is now practicable, the public peace, and to give security and protection to the persons and property of loyal citizens, I do hereby extend and declare established Martial Law throughout the state of Missouri. The lines of the army of occupation in the state, are, for the present, declared to extend to Leavenworth by way of the posts of Jefferson City, Rolla, and Ironton, to Cape Girardeau on the Mississippi river. All persons who shall be taken with arms in their hands within these lines, shall be tried by court martial, and if found guilty will be shot. The property, real and personal, of all persons in the state of Missouri who shall take up arms against the United States, or who shall be directly proven to have taken part with their enemies in the field, is declared to be confiscated to the public use, and their slaves, if any they have, are hereby declared free men. All persons who shall be proven to have destroyed, after the publication of this order, railroad tracks, bridges, or telegraphs, shall suffer the extreme penalty of the law. All persons engaged in treasonable correspondence, in giving or procuring aid to the enemies of the United States, in fomenting tumults, in disturbing the public tranquility, by creating and circulating false reports or incendiary documents, or are in their interest, are warned that they are exposing themselves to sudden and severe punishment. All persons who have been led away from their allegiance are required to return forthwith to their homes. Any such absence without sufficient cause, will be held to be presumptive evidence against them. The object of this declaration is to place in the hands of the military authorities the power to give instantaneous effect to existing laws, and to supply such deficiencies as the conduct of the war demands, but it is not intended to suspend the ordinary tribunals of the country, which will be administered by the civil officers, in the usual manner and with the customary authority, while the same can be peacefully exercised.

The commanding general will labor vigilantly for the public welfare, and in his efforts for their safety, hopes to obtain not only the acquiesence but the active support of the people of the country.

(Signed) J. C. FREMONT,
Major General, Commanding.

SPECIAL ORDER NO. 106.

HEADQUARTERS WESTERN DEPARTMENT,
St. Louis, Aug. 30, 1861.

The commanding general sincerely regrets that he finds it necessary to make reproach to the patriotic army under his command. He had hoped that the right enforcement of discipline and good example of the mass of the enlightened soldiery which he has the honor to lead, would have been sufficient to correct in good time the irregularities and license of the few who have reflected discredit upon our cause and ourselves. But the extension of martial law to all the state of Missouri, rendered suddenly necessary by its unhappy condition, renders it equally imperative to call the army to good order and vigorous discipline. They are reminded that the power to inflict the extraordinary severities of the now governing law is rigidly confined to a few, who are to be held strictly accountable for its exercise. They are also reminded that the same necessity which requires the establishment of martial law, demands also the enforcement of the military laws, which govern themselves with the same sudden severity. The commanding general therefore strictly prohibits all vexatious proceedings calculated to unnecessarily harass the citizens, and also unauthorized searches, seizures and destruction of property, except in cases of military necessity, and for which the officer authorized or permitting it will be held stictly and personally responsible. All officers commanding districts, posts or detachments, are enjoined to use the utmost prudence and circumspection in the discharge of their duties under the circumstances. A strict obedience to orders, close attention to duties, and an earnest effort to protect and avoid harassing innocent persons, is requested and expected from officers and men. The commanding general trusts that he will find few occasions to reproach the troops. He hopes and believes that he will find many to admire and approve them.

JOHN C. FREMONT,
Maj. Gen. Commanding.

QUINCY, Aug. 30.

Two trains on the Hannibal & St. Joseph railroad were fired into five miles west of Palmyra to-day. The one this afternoon the train boy, named Eligan, was killed. The conductor received several balls in his clothes and hat—one slightly wounded him in the back. Several others were slightly wounded. Telegraph and railroad communication is probably cut off until more Union troops arrive on the ground.

The report that Palmyra was taken is not confirmed.

Gen. Hurlbut, with a force of probably 2,000, is still at Kirkville. Nothing reliable from him for several days.

DETROIT Aug. 30.

The sixth, Michigan Regiment, which has rendezvoused at Kalamazoo, passed through here to day en route for the seat of war. The men were wholly uniformed before starting, and make a fine appearance.

The Fifth, Seventh, and Colonel Stockton's Independent Regiment are expected to move next week.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DESPATCHES.

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 31.

WASHINGTON, August 30.

Times correspondence—This morning the rebels made a demonstation in force with three pieces of artillery, against our pickets stationed at Fall's Cross Roads.—After retiring a short distance our troops returned the fire, and finally compelled the enemy to retire, when they resumed the possession of their former position. One private of a Michigan regiment was slightly wounded.

Military authorities think the present movements of the rebels have no significance, except to keep their men actively employed to prevent the demoralization and the dissolution of their army, until they are prepared for a grand movement, or one is made against them.

Capt. Whipple of the engineers accompanied Mr. Lowe on his ærial reconnoisance yesterday. They observed nearly 10,000 men at work throwing up entrenchments on Munsen's Hill, between Fall's Church and Fairfax, a distance of seven miles. They concluded the enemy must be in large force.

The state department will notissue passes to any body to pass from loyal into rebel states. Since the passage through Louisville was stopped, the demand for passes has been very large. Most of the applicants are women who have been living at the north.

The general order issued by Adj. Gen. Thomas calling attention to the 57th article of the act passed for the government of the armies of the United States, has a more sweeping application than is generally supposed. It is intended to apply to all persons both in and out of the army, and to newspapers here and elsewhere throughout the north. Under it it is intended to prohibit the publication of movements connected with the raising of troops, the preparations of munitions of war, the transportation of men, and the fitting out of vessels.

Mr. Bates left Washington this morning for St. Louis. In his absence Titian L. Coffe has been commissioned as attorney general.

World's despatch.—A number of leading financiers, including the presidents of some of the New York banks, are now in the city urging upon the President certain changes in the conduct of the war. They propose that the government shall attempt to force the rebels to abandon their threatened attack upon Washington, by making counter attacks upon various points in the south. The secretary of the treasury is gratified to know that the success of the national loan does not depend on banks, corporations or other monied institutions, but that the people alone are able and willing to subscribe all the money that is needed. It will satisfy the public and increase popular confidence in the government to state that the attorney general has decided that the loan is not taxable either by state or local authorities.

Senator Wade, of Ohio, before leaving Washington, was authorised by the government to raise a regiment of cavalry and a battery of artillery for the war.

Tribune's despatch.—A letter from St. Louis states that there is no doubt that the rebels intended and expected to be in full possession of St. Louis before now, and that August 20th, the time fixed upon for the active co-operation of secessionists in that city, nothing could have prevented the plot from succeeding, had they been victorious at Springfield. Gen. Lyon knowing this, sacrificed himself, and saved the city a second time by his victory, for such it was in fact. Our friends have gained twice and are safe.

Advices received at the war department confirm the report that the Kiowas and Camanches, from whom the government last year withheld their annual presents on account of previous rascalities, have united their fortunes with the southern confederacy. The principal rendezvous of the tribes is near Fort Bent.

Herald's dispatch.—It is estimated by men entitled to know, that there are 75,000 of the rebel army between Harpers's Ferry and Edward's Ferry, awaiting an opportunity to force a crossing into Maryland, and willing to take the chances there of an insurrection of the malcontents. That will enable them to transfer the conflict to that state, and place Washington between two rebel armies. In the meantime, hundreds of Maryland secessionists are gathering upon the eastern shore for the purpose of carrying out the programme of cutting off direct communication between Philadelphia and Baltimore, simultaneously to the passage of the rebels across the Potomac, at the little town of Eaton, in Talbot county. These arrivals have amounted to as many as five hundred per day. The rebels are in such a condition that they are compelled either to attempt to advance or retire from the Potomac. The resources of this region are exhausted, and they cannot much longer subsist their immense force on the Virginia side of the Potomac. They must therefore avail themselves of the richness of the splendid agricultural district of western Maryland, or fall back at least upon the Rappahanock. Their desperation will make lively times along the Potomac in a few days, and perhaps in a few hours.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

FORT MONROE, Aug. 30.

The gun boat Iroquois, from the blockade off Savannah, arrived last evening.—She reports having heard heavy cannonading when off Hatteras Inlet, and also spoke a brig which had met the federal fleet. We have no other intelligence of the expedition. One of the confederate prisoners retained for some days at Old Point, expressed the opinion that the federal vessels would be blown up by sub-marine batteries, which Lient. Maury has placed in Hatteras Inlet, and other assailable points on the Carolina coast.

Since the quarrel between the Alabama and Virginia troops at Yorktown, which resulted in killing eight men, the Virginia regiments have been transferred to Norfolk. The Alabamaians accused the latter of cowardice.

This morning a small secession tug, mounted with a rifled brass cannon, ran out from Norfolk to within two and a half miles of Newport News. She fired 23 shots at the United States frigate Savannah, no person was injured. The tug was in range of but two of the Savannah's guns and Sawyer's rifled cannon on shore. When they were brought to bear on her, she ran down towards Old Point and fired two shells, one of which exploded near the Seminole, and the other close to Rip Raps. The fire was returned, whereupon she retreated behind Sewall's Point.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.

David M. Stone, long the commercial editor, and Tom C. Prime, have succeeded to the interests of Gerard Hallock, esq., in the Journal of Commerce, and in connection with Messrs. Wm. H. Hallock and Wm. A. Hall, will hereafter conduct the paper. The government has removed its interdict against the circulation of the Journal of Commerce over the mail and express routes of the United States.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 31.

The remains of Gen. Lyon passed through this city at 8 o'clock this morning, escorted by the military to Trenton depot. The flags of the city are at half mast. Numbers crowded the streets through which the procession passed.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.

Special to Post.—All regular correspondents of loyal newspapers are now granted passes to cross the Potomac, temporary restrictions having been removed.

Government is using treasury notes in part payment of clerks in departments.

Advices received from Western Virginia, state that the loyal men of that region are rapidly enlisting in the volunteer service. A Union meeting has just been held in Alexandria, Virginia.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.

It seems certain that the administration, at present, has no intention whatever to avail itself of the permission sanctioned by congress, for the collection of duties on ship board, or to the closing of ports which on the land side are in possession of insurrectionary authorities. Our government will rely on the existence and efficiency of the blockade for a sufficient answer to any reclaimation which may be made by foreign governments in regard to their maratime rights.

The Intelligencer of to day contains an article to the above effect, and this telegraph agency has such authentic information as warrants the correctness of the statement.

The Markets.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.

Receipts of flour 2,989 barrels, market 5c better with fair export demand, sales 10,000 barrels, 4,20a4,30 super state; 4,50a 4,65 extra state; 4,20a4,30 super western; 4,45a4,65 common to medium extra western; 5,05a5,10 shipping brands extra R. H. O. Canada flour quiet and unchanged. Rye flour steady, 2,30a3,80. Receipts of wheat 93,345 bushels, market heavy and drooping for common and steady for sound, sales 50,000 bushels, 1,06 Milwaukee club.

EXPRESS CONVENIENCES.—We have the formal notification of the Government that no further communication between the U. S. and the rebel districts will be allowed to be made through the agency of Express Companies. This will be a severe blow to the Secessionist. Adams' Express Company has been as useful to the confederate government, in its business, up to this date entirely legitimate, as the United States mail could be. But the United States have derived no similar advantage. For while rebels have been allowed everywhere in the loyal States to pick up valuable information and send it to the south, no Union man could do a like service in the south, for the United States government and live. This unfair state of things is now changed. We are on a footing, at last, with the enemies of our Government.—New York Times.

BUT ONE HOPE FOR THE REPUBLIC.—The New York Leader says: "There is but one hope for the republic. It must assert itself, crush out rebellion and compel the fear and respect of its enemies abroad and at home or all is lost! There is no middle ground—there is no middle course. Let the men of the people shake off this discouragement, and recognize at once their duty and our power to triumph, and the work will soon be done. Then—the duty of the present met—we can easily take care of the future."

HIGHLY IMPORTANT ARREST AT PHILADELPHIA.—Samuel Eaken, who was arrested at Philadelphia on a charge of treason, and taken to Fort Lafayette, is one of the most skillful of mechanics and chemists, and has been receiving high pay from the Richmond authorities. At the time of his arrest he was endeavoring to get a force of mechanics to take south, and to buy telegraph and other material. A correspondent of the New York Herald says that in searching his house in Philadelphia, some curious contrivances were discovered.—Among them about eight thousand feet of extremely minute insulated telegraph wire, of the thickness of thread, wrapped in silk, and adapted to forming connection with any ordinary wire. The color of the thread was green, and in some respects, it was similar to the fragments of cable picked up near Fortress Monroe. At a distance of ten yards this wire was invisible, and it could be trailed through grass and herbage, over any extent of country, without detection. The object of this wire was, doubtless, to lead off messages from the government lines, and put the rebels in possession of every important movement. Eaken insisted that it was an improved wire for insulating magnets; but well informed witnesses disagreed with him. A percussion cap was likewise discovered, that would ignite cannon cartridges through the thick metallic coverings, and thus avoid the necessity of tearing off the envelope. The model of a cannon, likewise, came to light, that the inventor supposes capable of splitting a seventy-four frigate in half at a distance of three miles. A miniature torpedo, for submarine purposes, consisting essentially of a gutta percha bag and tube was discovered, and this, from the prisoner's own admission, was to be used in blowing up war vessels. Among the prisoner's private papers we may enumerate a railroad pass, directing the various southern railroads to pass the bearer to any point in the confederacy, and charge his expenses to the Davis government; a letter from the director of the Richmond armory, containing grave matters not yet made public; and one from George B. Sloat, the precise nature of which is not yet explained, which the prisoner was detected in chewing to pieces. He succeeded in swallowing half the missive. More than $1,000 in gold were likewise taken from his effects.—Cincinnati Gazette.

SECESSION FROM SECESSION.—We learn by recent arrivals from the south that the governor of Georgia has recalled the troops of that state from Virginia in order to suppress insurrection at home. This is probably an excuse—the real reason being hostility to Jefferson Davis and his cabinet, on the ground of their interfering with state rights, and organizing forces in Georgia for the war without the authority of the governor, in derogation of the sovereignty of the state, and in opposition to the constitution and the principles of the revolution of 1776. The quarrel has been going on for some time, having been first developed in the case of General Bartow, who lost his life at Bull Run, and who had taken troops and arms from the state in obedience to Jefferson Davis and in spite of Governor Brown. The quarrel culminated on the 2d inst., when the governor disbanded a brigade at Atlanta, commanded by General Phillips. Governor Brown seized the opportunity to assail Davis & Co. He said "the battle of sovereignty which was fought at the revolution had to be fought over again," as there was an attempt now being made at the south "to destroy state sovereignty and build upon its ruins either a monarchy or a consolidated aristocracy." That this quarrel will end in the secession of Georgia from the seceded states there appears to be little doubt; and as, according to their own doctrine, a state has a right to secede, the confederate government are without any remedy. Such is the absurdity to which the principle of secession leads, and such the denouement which we long since predicted.

The practical working of the doctrines of the rebel leaders to the disintegration of their own government, shows that they will all go to pieces. But if the evil were to be confined to the south we would not have so much reason to regret it; but if the South succeeds in establishing its independence, and with it the principle of secession, the same evil will prevail at the north, and secession after secession will be the result, till at last the thirty-four independent military republics, all warring against each other. The way to prevent this catastrophe is to render the struggle for the Union triumphant by giving it all the moral and physical aid which it needs. New York Herald.

SECESSIONISTS IN MILWAUKEE.—There are secessionists in Milwaukee as well as in Chicago. We learn from the officers of the commissary department, that a doctor, of southern birth and slavery proclivities, visited the quarter-master's office, on Main street, the other day, and denounced the war and defended the southern traitors in regular secession style, till at last he was ordered out of the office. There are a few such citizens here who are giving aid and comfort to the rebels, and doing what they can to bring the government into contempt. They are bold, defiant, having all the assurance, impudence and haughtiness of plantation masters. They need watching.—We are not sure btu a public meeting, and the appointment of a vigilance committee to look after home traitors and spies, are needed here as much as in Chicago. Without doubt they are in correspondence with the southern rebels. We must weed out traitors at home, as well as fight them on their own soil.—Daily Life.

THE RAILROAD.—The Times says that a meeting of the stockholders of the Sugar River Valley Railroad, and their friends was lately held at Albany. It was well attended, and several thousand dollars were subscribed.

☞ The military spirit is up in this city to fever heat. Recruiting is going on for six different military organizations, besides a committee for promoting the formation of a Rock county regiment is stirring up the people generally.

OFF FOR CAMP RANDALL.—Capt. Britton of the Janesville Fire Zouaves has received an order from Adj. Gen. Utley, to leave this city at noon on Tuesday. Let the people all turn out to see them off.

THE CITY ZOUAVES.—This body of young men last evening resolved to offer its services to the government during the war. Twenty-five out of twenty nine members present, enrolled their names. Immediate efforts will be made to fill up the company and attach to the regiment proposed to be raised in Rock and Green counties. A very large majority of this company, which numbers in all forty-four members, are over eighteen years of age, and the whole are active, intelligent young men.

ANOTHER ACT OF PATRIOTISM AND GOOD WILL.—Lieut. Ruger invites liberal-minded citizens to prepare such a quantity of cold provisions as they may see fit to furnish his company of Sappers and Miners with a hasty breakfast on the cars, Monday morning. They leave on the 7:10 train and they will not have time to obtain breakfast after being mustered in. Provisions may be left at the armory at the Hyatt House to-day.

Remember generously the men who are willing to fight the battles of the country.

☞ Rev. H. C. Tilton will preach in the Methodist Episcopal church to-morrow evening at the usual hour of evening service.

THE CITY SCHOOLS.—The public schools of this city will be opened next Monday.

The Rev. Wm. C. Harris, of Myresville, Vermillion county, Ill., was killed by lightning on Monday morning of last week. At the time he was walking about the room singing a hymn, when he was stricken down instantly. No marks were found upon his person except a small gash in one of his shoes. His wife was in the same room, and a large family of other persons. No one was injured but himself. He was 60 years old, and of the Methodist church.

TAXATION.—We talk of enormous taxation in this country. Britain now raises in local taxation ninety-three millions of pounds—nearly four hundred and sixty-three millions of dollars—per annum!

AT CAMP RANDALL.—The following companies are now at Camp Randall: Lodi Guards, Columbia County Cadets, Platteville Guards, Marquette County Sharpshooters, Stoughton Light Guard, Grand Rapids Union Guards and Lancaster Union Guards. The Northwestern Tigers and Grant County Badger State Guard arrive to-day, and the Beloit Rifles to-morrow, thus filling the 7th regiment.

Capt. Hastrieter's Madison Sharpshooters have left the camp and gone into Milwaukee to form part of the 9th German regiment. The captain says that he was unable to fill up here in consequence of the "secessionists" persuading Germans not to enlist in his company.—Madison Patriot.

Colonel Gowen writes from Sebastopol that he gets on slowly with the work of raising the remaining sunken Russian ships. They are so rotten that there is no portion of them strong enough to bear their own weight. The Colonel adds; "I have raised and removed some fifty vessels, a large majority vessels of war, of which there were nine war steamers and several 60 gun frigates. The harbor of Sebastopol is as practically clear this day as it was before the sinking of the fleet."

At a special meeting of Rescue Hook and Ladder Co. No. 1, held at their house on Friday evening, August 30, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, We are about to lose the chief engineer of our fire department, W. B. Britton, and several members of Hook and Ladder Company, they having enlisted in the service of their country to fight her battles and to defend her liberties and her constitution; and

WHEREAS, We, the members of said company, feel deep sympathy and interest in the success of the cause they have so nobly espoused; and holding in high estimation as we do our late foreman and chief commander, W. B. Britton, and his patriotic comrades as being endowed with courage, patriotism and moral worth, and having been associated with us as officer and private member of said fire company in the discharge of our arduous duties; therefore

Resolved, That in the departure from our midst of W. B. Britton, the fire department, and this company in particular, lose an intelligent and efficient officer and agreeable comrade, and the city of Janesville one endowed with all the qualities which go to make up the man and citizen, and that we firmly believe that the company of which he has been chosen captain, will find in our brother one who will lead them to victory and to glory.

Resolved, That in the others of our comrades who have united their fortunes with the fortunes of their country, we have the most implicit confidence in their courage, fidelity and manhood, and bespeak for them unflinching devotion to their country's cause.

Resolved, That the departure of our friends and comrades is a source of deep regret to us, alleviated only by the consideration that while we remain at home to contend in stormy battles with the fire fiend, our friends are contending with the horrid war fiend of slavery and despotism. Our loss will be our country's gain; and feeling thus, we hail their departure from us as a harbinger of good, and humbly ask that when the black battle cloud shall lower over their heads, the God of Hosts will nerve them for the conflict, and if consistent with his purposes keep them from harm.

"Onward! onward to the battle, who can doubt which side shall win?
Might and right both guide our squadrons, and the steadfast hearts within."

Resolved, That the foregoing resolutions be signed by the foreman and secretary of company, and be published in the daily papers of this city.

WM. T. PAUL, Foreman.
J. H. SANDERS, Secretary.

ENGLAND INTERESTED WITH THE NORTH.—Unless history is a record of misleading precedents, the American government will in a month be stronger for its defeats.—That it should be so must be the wish of every Englishman, for the consequences must be disastrous to human freedom.—The South in posession of Washington, and once recognized as a power would be in the best position to realize its dreams of conquest and spoliation. The army which had defeated the North, or driven it back from its soil, would overrun Mexico as easily as the first conquerors of the country. Once masters of the silver mines, and of a great taxable population, the southern leaders might in a few years organize an army which nothing on the American continent could withstand, and which would speedily bring about a new calamity—the armed interference of Europe in Central America. Such a power while unopposed, might reopen the slave trade and certainly so extend the area of slavery as to render its extinction all but impossible. The first barrier against a misfortune so terrible to the world is the strength of the American government and however annoying its failures, or however deep our disgust at its tone, it is with that government that the sympathies of all free men perforce must lie.—London News.

IMPORTANT IF TRUE.—As turpentine is contraband now, and has advanced from 30 cents to $1 25 per gallon, a substitute is wanted for mixing paint; it is now stated by those who have tried it, that the naptha, or benzole, as it is generally called, taken from the petroleum oil, is equally as good, and on some accounts better, than the turpentine, and we observe by the Pennsylvania and Ohio papers, is in general use by all painters.—Rochester Adv.

Naptha has for some months past been used by many of our painters as a substitute for turpentine. Messrs, Hervey & Bousfield, of the Boston Pail Company use it for all their ware, and its use is every day becoming more extended. The price of naptha at our coal oil refineries where it is manufactured, is we understand 35 cents per gallon. Hence all painters can see the benefit to be derived from using it.—Cleveland Herald.

A TELLING FACT WELL STATED.—In his patriotic speech at Tunkhanneck, Pa., last Monday, Daniel S. Dickinson of New York, stated the case as to the origin of this war so concisely and admirably that it might be taken as the motto of all the defenders of the government. "South Carolina began to scrape lint before the votes were counted." And it is a positive historical fact.

TRINITY CHURCH.—The annual renting of slips in Trinity Church will take place on Monday, Sept. 2d, at 10½ o'clock A. M., in the church. aug23d7d

CHAPTER 242.

AS AMENDED BY CHAPTER 1, EXTRA SESSION.

AN ACT to amend the General Banking Law, and the several acts amendatory thereof.

The People of the State of Wisconsin represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22 of chapter 71 of the Revised Statutes, with the thereunto belonging amendment, (see chapter 95 of the general laws of 1858,) is hereby amended as follows: by striking out the following words: "Said stocks to be valued at a rate to be estimated and governed by the average rate at which said stocks have been sold in the city of New York, within the next six months preceding the time when such stocks may be left on deposite with the comptroller." By striking out the words "equal to," and inserting after the words "not exceeding," the words "in value." By striking out the following words: "But such public stocks shall in all cases be, or be made to be equal to a stock producing six per cent per annum; and it shall not be lawful for the bank comptroller to take such stock at a rate above its par value, nor above its current market value in the city of New York at the time of deposite, by such person or association of persons;" and by inserting in lieu thereof the following: "and it shall be lawful for the bank comptroller to issue for public stock which have been ranging at or above par during the last six months, and up to the time of deposite in the New York market, circulating notes up to the par value of said stocks; but the comptroller shall not issue for public stock ranging below par in said market, more circulation than ninety per cent of the current market value of said stocks at the time of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the average market value during the last six months; and for such stocks as during the last six months have been at and above as well as below par, the comptroller shall not issue more than ninety per cent of the average value during the last six months, nor in any event more than ninety per cent of its market value on the day of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the par value of such stocks;" so that the said section shall henceforth read as follows: "Whenever, hereafter, any person or association of persons, formed for the purpose of banking under the provisions of this chapter, shall duly assign and transfer in trust to the treasurer of this state, any portion of the public stocks issued or to be issued by the United States or any state stocks, on which full interest is annually paid, such person or association of persons shall be entitled to receive from the bank comptroller an amount of such circulating notes of different denominations, registered and countersigned, and not exceeding in value the amount of public stocks assigned and tranferred as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for the bank comptroller to issue for public stocks, which have been ranging at or above par during the last six months, and up to the time of deposite in the New York market, circulating notes up to the par value of said stocks, but the comptroller shall not issue for public stocks ranging below par in said market, more circulation than ninety per cent of the current market value of said stocks at the time of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the average market value during the last six months; and for such stocks as during the last six months have been at and above as well as below par, the comptroller shall not issue more than ninety per cent of the average value during the last six months, nor in any event more than ninety per cent of its market value on the day of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the par value of such stocks; Provided, that if in the opinion of the bank comptroller, together with the governor and the secretary of state any stocks offered shall be deemed insecure, they shall not be received as such securities under the provisions of this act; and provided, further, that from and after the first day of December, 1861, the bank comptroller shall not receive as security for circulating bank notes, any other public stocks than those issued by the state of Wisconsin and the United States.

SEC. 2. Any public stocks described in the preceding section, and issued at a rate of interest less than five per cent per annum, to be receivable by the bank comptroller, shall be made to be equal to stocks producing five per cent per annum.

SEC. 3. Section 40 of chapter 71 of the Revised Statutes, is hereby amended by inserting between the words "located" and "to," in the 19th line of said section, the words "or to the Judge at chambers."

SEC. 4. Every bank and banking association now organized in this state, and all banks and banking associations that shall be organized before the 1st of day December, 1861, except such banks and banking associations as are or may hereafter be located in the cities of Milwaukee and Madison, shall, on or before said first day of December next, appoint an agent, who shall keep an office in the city of Milwaukee or in the city of Madison, for the redemption of all circulating notes issued by such bank or banking association, which shall be presented to such agent for payment or redemption.

SEC. 5. The appointment of such agent shall be made in writing, and such written appointment shall be delivered to the bank comptroller on or before said first day of December next, who shall file the same in his office. If any bank or banking association shall neglect or refuse to appoint such agent within the time above mentioned, the bank comptroller shall appoint such agent for such bank or banking association.

SEC. 6. The bank comptroller shall, immediately after said first day of December next, during such time as he may deem advisable, publish a list of such agents in one daily newspaper published in the city of Madison, and in one daily newspaper published in the city of Milwaukee, the expense whereof shall be equally divided among the several banks or banking associations so published, and be paid by them to the comptroller on demand, under penalty of forfeiture of one hundred dollars, to be collected and applied as provided in respect to the forfeiture named in section 19, chapter 71, of the Revised Statutes.

SEC. 7. Every bank or banking association hereafter organized, shall before receiving any circulating notes from the bank comptroller, appoint an agent for the purposes of this act; and such appointment shall be immediately published in the manner aforesaid, at the expense of such bank or banking association, to be collected in the manner above provided.

SEC. 8. Appointments of agents made in pursuance of this act, may be revoked and new appointments of agents made from time to time, by delivering such revocation and appointment to the bank comptroller, who shall cause the same to be published as before provided.

SEC. 9. It shall be lawful for any number of banks or banking associations, authorized by this act, to appoint an agent to associate together for raising a joint fund, to be placed in the hands of their common agent for the redemption of their circulating notes, in the city of Milwaukee or Madison, and also the circulating notes of other banks in such manner, and under such regulations as may be agreed upon, and to employ such agents and clerks as they may deem necessary to carry on the business of such common agency; but nothing in this section contained shall authorize the redemption or purchase by such agency of any circulating notes at a rate of discount greater than is herein provided for, nor relieve such banks from any duty or liability required or imposed by this act.

SEC. 10. Every such bank or banking association in this state, except such banks and banking associations as now are or may hereafter be located in the cities of Milwaukee and Madison, shall redeem and pay on demand, in the lawful money of the United States, all circulating notes issued by such banks or banking associations, presented for redemption at the office of the agent of such bank or banking association, during the usual hours of business of bankers, between the hours of ten and three o'clock, at a rate of discount not exceeding three-fourths of one per cent.

SEC. 11. Every bank or banking association, whose agent shall neglect or refuse to redeem its notes on demand, as aforesaid, shall, on proof being made to the bank comptroller of such neglect or refusal, by the affidavit of the person who presented said notes for redemption or payment, and on depositing in his office the notes so presented, be subject to the same penalties, and be proceeded against in the same manner, as is now provided by law for cases where the circulating notes of any bank or banking association are protested for nonpayment, unless the comptroller shall be satisfied that there is a good and legal defence against the payment of such notes.

SEC. 12. Every bank and banking association shall redeem its circulating notes as now provided by law, but in case of neglect or refusal to redeem its notes on presentation at its counter, and of protest thereof, such bank or banking association, if not located within the city of Milwaukee or the city of Madison, shall not be liable to the holder of such notes for damages: Provided, it shall within fifteen days after receiving notice from the comptroller to pay the same, redeem said notes in the lawful money of the United States, with interest at the rate of fifteen per cent per annum; Provided that the officer or officers of such bank or banking association so neglecting or refusing to redeem its notes on demand, may endorse upon the bill or package of bills so presented, an acknowledgement of such presentation and refusal, and waiving protest upon the same; and such endorsement shall be held as evidence of the statement therein made.

SEC. 13. No bank or banking association shall hereafter receive upon the deposite of bonds, circulating notes to an amount exceeding three times its bona fide cash capital actually paid in, and the bank comptroller is hereby authorized and required to ascertain what the actual cash capital of any bank or banking association applying for circulation, except in exchange for mutilated bills, may be, and for this purpose he is authorized to examine any person on oath, and to compel answers under oath, from any officer or stockholder of any bank or banking association so applying, or any other person.

SEC. 14. No bank or banking association shall hereafter be organized in this state, nor shall any more circulating notes be issued to any bank or banking association in this state, unless said bank or banking association shall have a bona fide cash capital of at least fifteen thousand dollars actually paid in, which shall remain in such bank or banking association as capital, and employed in legitimate banking at the place where the bank is located; and it is hereby declared that the bonds deposited with the bank comptroller shall not be considered as any evidence of the existence of capital in any such bank or banking association, nor of the amount and extent of such capital; and it is hereby made the duty of the comptroller, before issuing any more circulating notes to any such bank or banking association now organized, or that shall be hereafter organized, except in exchange for mutilated notes, to satisfy himself by an examination under oath of an officer or stockholder of such bank or banking association that it has fully complied with the provisions of this section and of the next preceding section of this act, and for the purposes of such examination the comptroller, or in the absence the deputy comptroller, is hereby authorized to administer oaths: Provided, that nothing in this act contained shall be so construed as to permit any bank to issue circulating notes to any greater amount than its nominal capital.

SEC. 15. From and after the first day of December next it shall not be lawful for any bank or banking association, banker, broker, company or corporation, to circulate or attempt to circulate, or to pay out as money, any bill, note or other evidence of debt issued or purporting to have been issued by any bank or banking association, company, corporation or individual located or residing out of this state, unless such bill, note or evidence of debt shall, for the last six months preceding such circulating or paying out, have been redeemable in the city of New York or Boston in current money of the United States, at a rate of discount not exceeding three fourths of one per cent; and the decision of the bank comptroller as to the rate of such discount shall be final and conclusive. Every bank or banking association, banker or broker, corporation or company, offending against the provisions of this section shall forfeit for each and every offense the sum of one hundred dollars, to be recovered with costs of suit in the name and for the use of any person who shall sue for the same and prosecute such suit to judgment in any court having cognizance thereof.

SEC. 16. In hand every person owning or holding stock in any bank or banking association, who shall sell, transfer or assign his stock or any portion thereof, in any such bank or banking association, shall be held, and remain for the term of six months from and after such sale, transfer or assignment, as aforesaid, personally liable to the amount of stock so aforesaid sold, transferred or assigned by him for the payment of all the debts and liabilities of such bank or banking association, existing at the time of such sale, transfer or assignment.

SEC. 17. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the first day of December, eighteen hundred and sixty-one.

SEC. 18. All acts or parts of acts conflicting with, or in any way contravening the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

SEC. 19. At the general election to be held on the Tuesday next succeeding the first Monday in November, in the year 1861, at all the usual places of holding elections in this state, for the election of all officers required by law then to be elected, the question whether this act shall become a law and go into effect, or in any manner be in force, shall be submitted to the people, and if the same shall be approved by a majority of all the votes cast on the subject, it shall go into effect; otherwise, it shall not go into effect nor be in force.

SEC. 20. The votes cast on the subject specified in the last preceding section shall be by separate ballot, and shall have written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, on each of them, the words: "For Amendments to the Banking Law;" or "Against Amendments to the Banking Law," which words shall indicate the vote for or against the approval of this act; and the ballots so cast shall be canvassed and returned in the same manner as the votes cast for state officers are required by law to be canvassed, and the secretary of state shall immediately, on the completion of said canvass, publish a statement of the result thereof in the official state paper, and shall communicate the same to the next legislature at the commencement of the session, and he shall also deliver to the state treasurer a certified copy thereof, with a statement of the result of the canvass upon the subject immediately after the completion of the canvass.

Chapter 212, approved April 13, 1861; Chapter 1, Extra Session, approved May 25, 1861.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and all other kinds of property, can be effected in this Company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it numbers its assets of a solid million of assets well invested, and if anything were needed to commend it to the public, for liberal treatment, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and rest their business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and [illegible] they have but few equals and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not in the past ten years depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost if not entirely valueless. And while there are [illegible] the field of competition, well calculated [illegible] by publishing partial and one-sided statements [illegible] and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding [illegible] above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in [illegible] times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for [illegible] patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
